DEPOSIT ACCOUNT AGREEMENT BOOKLET

I. General Matters

The Deposit Account Agreement governing this Account consists of this booklet, a Depositor's Agreement signature form or sample first check signature specimen or Debit Card Acknowledgment Form (if missing executed Depositor's Agreement signature form), disclosures such as Truth in Savings and Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement, Schedule of Fees and any written agreement for banking services connected with this Account (the "Agreement"). As used in this Agreement, "Authorized Signatory" means each and every signatory on this Account, including Depositor, any person signing the initial Depositor's Agreement signature form or any person whose name is found either on the first deposit slip or on the sample first check signature specimen or the Debit Card Acknowledgment Form (if missing executed Depositor's Agreement signature form), and each and every Convenience Signer. Bank and each Authorized Signatory agree that to the extent that no other written agreement, by, between, and/or among Bank and one or more Authorized Signatory is applicable to a specific issue, this Agreement will govern their relationship. You understand that this Deposit Account Agreement Booklet plus the disclosures you receive and any agreements as to special services (like mobile banking) will control our relationship with You. You understand that you should read this Deposit Account Agreement carefully. Please review this Agreement and retain it in a safe place should you need to refer to it in the future.

BANK: "Bank", as used in this Deposit Account Agreement booklet, shall mean the bank and all of its branch locations designated by name and address in the Logo section on the front side of your Depositor's Agreement signature form(s).

THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS PROVISIONS FOR BINDING ARBITRATION AND WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL IN SECTIONS VI (MISCELLANEOUS).
PLEASE REVIEW THESE PROVISIONS CAREFULLY.

VERIFICATION OF IDENTITY: IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

For certain entity accounts, we are required by federal law to obtain beneficial ownership information. You agree to cooperate in collection and verification of such information and understand and acknowledge that if such information cannot be obtained, your account may be closed. Customer agrees to notify Bank of any change in Beneficial Ownership as long as any account remains open with Bank.

The protection of our customer's identity and confidentiality is of utmost importance to Bank. We proudly support all efforts to protect and maintain the security of our customers and our country.

Bank may require any person seeking to conduct a banking transaction to present identification and/or information acceptable to Bank. Before we allow a person to cash an item, we can require identification, such as a driver's license or passport. We can secure further identification by methods such as photography, fingerprinting, and other biometric in accordance with applicable law or technological means. If the person does not provide or permit such identification, we can decline to cash the item and you will not claim that we wrongfully dishonored it.

RULES GOVERNING THE ACCOUNT: This Agreement shall be governed and interpreted in accordance with all applicable federal laws and the laws of the State of Texas, except to the extent federal law requires the application of other law. In addition, it is subject to applicable clearinghouse rules and regulations. If from a construction of any document related to any transaction between Bank, Depositor and/or any Authorized Signatory, any term(s) or provision(s) of the document is in conflict with applicable laws, then such document shall be automatically reformed and modified as to comply with applicable law, without the necessity of execution of any amendment or new document. Bank is under no duty to act on instructions or requests, which Bank reasonably believes may cause Bank to be exposed to any civil or criminal liability.

To the extent that any terms or conditions set forth in the most current Depositor's Agreement signature form(s) executed by one or more Authorized Signatory and in this Deposit Account Agreement booklet are in conflict, the terms and conditions set forth in this booklet (and any amendment hereof) control and govern to the extent of such conflict(s).

If a conflict exists between any provision of this Agreement, and/or any statements, oral or written, made by any employee, officer or director of Bank or any member bank or branch bank of International BancShares Corporation, this Agreement will control. However, in the event of any inconsistency between this Agreement and federal disclosures on the same subject, the federal disclosures will control. In addition, in the event of any inconsistency between this Agreement and a separate agreement on a specific subject matter, such as treasury management agreements, the specific agreement shall control over this Agreement.

FEES AND SERVICE CHARGES: Depositor agrees to pay and this Account is subject to various published fees and service charges, including without limitation, monthly service charges; a fee for each debit, check, withdrawal or transfer document, and/or other items presented against, and/or for each other transaction, electronic or otherwise, involving this Account; research fees and copying charges; document maintenance and retention service charges, service charges for return mail processing, overdrafts, overdraft transfers, N.S.F. items (overdrafts created by checks, in person withdrawals, ATM withdrawals, or by other electronic means, as applicable), dishonor or payment devices, presentment of items against uncollected funds, reversal of any account entries, automatic debits, stop payment requests; service charges for inactive accounts, except as limited by law, and for recertification of an account, including fees for each required notice or reminder, and such other service charges and/or fees as are listed in the Account Services And Fees Schedule (and any amendment thereof). If you receive an Account Analysis Statement, you hereby agree to be subject to the fees set forth in such Account Analysis Statement. Upon proper and timely notice of amendment, the account fees and service charges may be modified by altering existing fees and/or service charges and/or by adding new fees and/or service charges, including without limitation, adding fees and/or service charges for existing services for which there is currently no fee and/or service charge. Any amendment to this Agreement shall be made in accordance with Modification of Terms herein.

If an item drawn against your Account is presented over the counter for payment by a person who is a noncustomer of Bank, Bank may charge a fee to the person presenting the item as a condition for payment of the item. You agree that Bank may dishonor any item if the person refuses to pay the fee or to provide the identification requested by Bank. Depositor agrees that all ATM, Debit Card and/or other electronic transactions are subject to all published fees, service charges and/or interest charges including those that result from insufficient funds transactions, overdrafts and/or advances against uncollected funds, as allowed by law.

If there is a garnishment, attachment, levy, administrative order, subpoena, summons, or other legal or administrative process, relating in any way to this Account, Bank has the right to charge this Account, and Depositor agrees to pay, an additional service charge, a review and inspection fee, an investigation and analysis fee, and all copying or electronic reproduction charges necessary to respond to such legal and/or administrative process, in addition to any attorney's fees and costs which may be allowed by law. Unless prohibited by law, all expenses incurred by Bank as a result of any legal, regulatory or administrative proceeding in any way affecting this Account, including but not limited to court costs, arbitration costs and fees, and reasonable attorney's fees, may be charged to this Account or billed directly to Depositor.

All of the fees and service charges described herein may be deducted from and/or charged to this Account and Bank shall not be liable for dishonoring checks, drafts, notes, acceptances, withdrawal and/or transfer documents, and/or other instruments or items, or for the failure to make automatic debits to this Account because of insufficient available funds in this Account resulting from (i) the charging of any service charges, fees and/or interest, (ii) any administrative hold due to a direct debit, withdrawal, and/or authorization, and/or (iii) any withdrawal or administrative hold due to any electronic or wire transfer, the receipt of any notice of return, or for any other reasonable cause.

Your account fees and terms may differ from those of other customers with the same type of account, based on our assessment of your overall relationship with us.

MODIFICATION OF TERMS: Bank may amend the terms of this Agreement, including the deletion of terms and conditions and/or special features and/or limitations on accounts, the addition of new and additional terms, conditions, duties, obligations, and/or rights, and the modifications of the fees and/or service charges, including specifically the addition of new and additional fees, and/or service charges for existing services for which there is currently no charge. Bank may notify Depositor of any amendment in any manner allowed by this Agreement and applicable State and Federal laws. By failing to close this Account prior to the effective date of any noticed amendment, each Authorized Signatory agrees to be bound by, and subject to, all terms and conditions contained in the amended Deposit Account Agreement from its effective date, including the deletion of any terms and conditions and/or special features and/or limitations on accounts, and any modifications to existing, or additions of new, account fees and/or service charges. Any amendment to the Arbitration Provisions and/or termination of the Arbitration Provisions shall never apply retroactively to any pending Disputes in arbitration or any pending Disputes between the Parties for which Notice of Dispute has been provided, unless the Parties otherwise expressly agree in writing, and any such amendment or termination shall not be effective until at least 30 days after notice has been provided and Depositor fails to close the account prior to the effective date.

If Depositor or any agent of Depositor requests that Bank hold Depositor's mail, Depositor and each Authorized Signatory agree that any and all notices of amendment and the text of any amendment to this Agreement and/or amendment to the fees and/or service charges, are made available to Depositor and are deemed to have been mailed to Depositor as of the date when notice of amendment and the text of such amendment would have otherwise been mailed. Mailing and/or deemed mailing of the notice of amendment and of the text of such amendment to only one Depositor is legal notice to, and delivery to, each and every Authorized Signatory.

CONVERSION OF ACCOUNT: Bank reserves the right to convert the Account to another type of account offered by Bank without the necessity of obtaining new/additional Depositor's Agreement Signature form(s).

BANK MAY TRANSFER THIS ACCOUNT TO ANOTHER BANK OR BRANCH BANK OF INTERNATIONAL BANCSHARES CORPORATION WITHOUT NECESSITATING THE EXECUTION OF NEW ACCOUNT DOCUMENTS: If for any reason Depositor desires that this Account be moved to a different bank/branch bank of International Bancshares Corporation, Depositor agrees that Bank may transfer this Account to said different bank/branch bank without the necessity of Depositor executing new account agreement and/or other documents. Bank and Depositor further agree that Depositor and the bank or branch bank to which this Account is transferred shall continue to be governed by the terms and conditions of this Agreement regardless of whether the bank routing number and/or account number on the new account is modified.

CLASSIFICATION OF CHECKING ACCOUNTS: For regulatory accounting purposes, Bank may classify checking accounts as two subaccounts: a transaction sub-account and a nontransaction sub-account. This classification will have no effect on the balance, the ability to use such account, the amount and rate of interest you receive (if applicable), the service charges (if any), or the account statement. Bank may transfer funds between these subaccounts. Bank will record the sub-accounts and transfer between them on Bank's internal accounting records only. All other terms, definitions and rules governing this Account remain in effect.

RATE INFORMATION: All interest bearing accounts at Bank, other than time deposits accrue interest at a variable rate of interest. Interest rates are established from time to time by Bank in its sole and absolute discretion and are subject to change without notice to Depositor.

CERTIFICATE OF DEPOSIT: A certificate of deposit account is not payable, in whole or in part, before maturity date and no interest accrues after date of maturity. There are additional terms and conditions that apply to certificates of deposit accounts and to other segregated interest bearing accounts which are set forth in Bank disclosure documents and/or in certificate of deposit receipts. To the extent that any conflict exists between the additional terms set forth in Bank's disclosures and/or receipts and this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement (together with its Addendums and Amendments) will control. A certificate of deposit is a segregated account and is represented only by bookkeeping entry on Bank's records, but distinguished from other types of deposits by a single global account number. A single Deposit Account Agreement (booklet)/Depositor's Agreement (signature card), together with a single global account number, may control all certificate of deposit accounts of the same Depositor(s) and no additional agreements will be required to establish such additional certificate of deposit accounts. Any certificate of deposit that is automatically renewable will receive the then prevailing rate of interest paid by Bank on certificates of deposit of similar amounts and term for an additional term equal to or substantially similar to the previous term of the certificate of deposit, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Bank and Depositor, notwithstanding anything contained herein or in Bank's disclosures and/or certificate of deposit receipt to the contrary.

For automatically renewable certificates of deposit, evidence of their current existence must be established by presentation of the certificate or execution of a "lost certificate affidavit." In addition to the execution of a "lost certificate affidavit", Depositor must present either a renewal notice from Bank or IRS Form 1099-INT from the Bank. In the event these documents are not presented, the Bank will presume that the certificate of deposit has been previously presented and paid, and its liability for such certificate of deposit shall be terminated.

Depositor has no right to make additional deposits to an existing certificate of deposit account. Bank may, in its sole and absolute discretion, allow additional deposits to existing certificate of deposit accounts. Depositor has the right to terminate the certificate of deposit or withdraw the funds there from within ten (10) days after the date of maturity of the deposit. An interest rate applicable to a certificate of deposit account is subject to modification by Bank at each maturity date and/or on the date of any withdrawal of funds from the certificate of deposit account. If Depositor requests withdrawal of a certificate of deposit or any part thereof prior to the agreed maturity date, and Bank, in its sole and absolute discretion, consents to Depositor's withdrawal request, Bank may charge a penalty as provided in the Certificate of Deposit disclosure documents. Nothing herein implies that Bank will consent to a request to allow additional deposits and/or for an early withdrawal and may decline any such request, even if prior requests have been approved.

CLOSING THE ACCOUNT: Except as expressly limited in this Agreement, either Depositor or Bank may close this Account at any time, with or without reason or cause of any type or manner, except that we may require you to give us seven (7) days advance notice when you intend to close your savings or interest bearing checking account by withdrawing your funds. If Bank closes this Account, Bank may notify Depositor of the effective date on which this Account will be, or was, closed. Bank agrees to remit to Depositor any positive balance remaining in this Account within a reasonable time of the effective date of the closing of this Account, after deduction therefrom (i) any fees, service charges and/or accrued interest due and owing, and/or (ii) any amounts subject to Bank's exercise of its right of setoff, and/or any foreclosure of Bank's security interest in this Account or in any of the funds deposited therein. If Bank closes your Account, Bank may mail a check to you at the address in the Bank's current records.

Any items presented for payment after this Account has been closed may be returned and you will be liable for any associated charges. Any additional deposits or electronic deposits (including Social Security, pension payments, automatic payroll deposits, or other federal or state benefit payments) attempted after this Account has been closed may be returned to the originator or we may collect the deposit and exercise our right of setoff if applicable. Bank will have no liability for refusing to honor any check or item drawn on a closed account or refusing to accept any deposit on a closed account. This provision will survive the termination of this Agreement.

DORMANT/INACTIVE ACCOUNT AND ABANDONED ACCOUNT: If your Account becomes inactive because you have not made any withdrawals or deposits for an extended period of time and you have not otherwise communicated with us about your Account, your Account may be classified by us as a Dormant Account. Bank is not required to notify you when your Account is placed in dormant status. Subject to applicable law, Dormant Accounts may be subject to a service charge based on the dormant or inactive status as described in the Schedule of Fees. Once an Account is classified by us as being in dormant status, you should contact the Bank to request that the Account be reclassified as "active". Simply conducting a transaction on an Account classified as dormant will not necessarily cause the Account to be reclassified as "active," and Bank may return items presented for payment or return electronic deposits, including government benefit deposits, if the Account is classified as dormant. A Dormant Account may still appear in your online banking profile, but unless you contact Bank to reclassify Account as "active" it will remain a Dormant Account.

In accordance with applicable law, Bank may be required to transfer the balance in your Account to the appropriate state agency if it remains dormant or inactive for the period of time to be considered "abandoned" or "unclaimed" under state law, and we will have no further liability to you. If funds are remitted to the state, you may file a claim with the state to recover the funds.

II. COMMUNICATION – BETWEEN DEPOSITOR & BANK; THIRD PARTIES & BANK

INFORMATION: Each Authorized Signatory authorizes Bank to obtain references and/or to verify any information on Depositor and/or any other Authorized Signatory, and further represents and warrants that the information provided herein and all other information provided Bank is true and correct.

Bank may share information as more particularly described in the Bank's privacy policy, which has been separately provided to you.

Bank may disclose information about Uniform Transfer To Minors Act Accounts to the minor or the minor's representative(s). The custodian agrees to keep Bank informed of the location of the minor(s).

CREDIT REPORTS: You authorize us to obtain reports about you periodically from organizations such as credit reporting agencies, check reporting services, and other consumer reporting entities, and to provide them information.

RECORDING: You give us permission to record your communications with us. If you authorize someone such as an attorney to do business with us on your behalf, you will be responsible for obtaining their permission to allow us to record their communications with us.

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS: Unless specifically agreed upon prior to transaction, any notice or other communication to Bank required or permitted by this Agreement and/or by law shall not be valid and/or effective and have no legal force and/or effect if received by Bank via the internet, facsimile transmission or other electronic communication system or device. All electronic communications to Bank are the sole responsibility of the sender. Bank may, in its sole and absolute discretion but without any obligation or duty, act upon or recognize such electronic communications.

NOTICE OF DISPUTED DEBTS: If any Authorized Signatory believes a bona fide dispute has arisen with Bank regarding any right, indebtedness or obligation under this Agreement, or any addendum and/or amendment hereto, or any other account document, at any time, such Authorized Signatory will notify Bank in writing that he/she believes a bona fide dispute has arisen by delivering the written notice of bona fide dispute, all other notices, demands, or documents, and all future payments or credits on any indebtedness to Bank to the attention of the President of the International Bancshares Corporation at the following mailing address:

Dennis E. Nixon, President
International Bancshares Corporation
P.O. Drawer 1359
Laredo, Texas 78042-1359

All limitations or restrictions on payment, and/or other legal notices or demands forwarded after the forwarding of the notice of bona fide dispute are agreed to have no legal force and/or effect until received by Bank at the above address.

CONTACT INFORMATION AND CHANGE OF ADDRESS: Depositor agrees to provide Bank accurate and current contact information and only give us postal address, phone numbers and email addresses that belong to you. Depositor agrees to notify Bank promptly in writing of any change of postal address, phone numbers and email addresses that belong to you. Bank may, in its sole and absolute discretion, recognize any communication, oral, written, or electronic, regarding notice of a change of postal address, phone numbers or email addresses of Depositor from any person whom Bank in good faith believes has authority to provide such notice.

STOP PAYMENTS: If Bank is requested to stop payment on an item or items, whether in writing or through IBC Online and/or IBC Link, each Authorized Signatory agrees to hold Bank harmless from, and indemnifies Bank for, any and all claims by third parties, and all expenses and costs incurred by Bank (including its reasonable attorney's fees and costs) as a result of refusing payment of said item or items. Each Authorized Signatory further agrees that Bank will not be liable for payment of an item subject to a stop payment request if such payment occurs through inadvertence, accident, or oversight, or is credited to, or against, any claimed indebtedness of any Authorized Signatory, or if by reason of such payment other items drawn on this Account are returned due to insufficient or uncollected available funds.

Bank's liability, if any, for paying an item subject to a proper, timely and effective stop payment order is limited to Depositor's actual economic loss sustained, or to the face amount of the item, whichever is less.

A request for stop payment is effective for six (6) months but renewals may be made from time to time if properly and timely requested by Depositor. No stop payment request, or renewal or revocation thereof, shall be valid and/or effective until after a reasonable period of time after the stop payment request is received during normal business hours at Bank on a Bank's approved form (whether received through IBC Online and/or IBC Link Stop Payment Request screen, or in writing), and (i) such receipt is evidenced by a Bank officer's written acknowledgment and/or (ii) Bank successfully receives an electronic stop payment request of an item through IBC Online and/or IBC Link that is properly described by at least, the date of the item, the exact amount of the item, the item number, and the precise account number. A reasonable period of time after receipt would necessarily include sufficient time for the stop payment request to be processed by Bank and to be noted on Bank's records which are accessible by the branch Bank where such check is presented. A written request for stop payment must describe the item with reasonable certainty, including providing at least the following information, the date of the item, the exact amount of the item, the item number, the precise account number, the name of payee, and the reason for the stop payment request.

If Depositor chooses to submit a request for stop payment through IBC Online and/or IBC Link and such request is successfully received and processed by Bank, record of the stop payment request will be available through IBC Online and/or IBC Link, and customer will be able to download or print a copy at that time. Depositor acknowledges that this information is sufficient to demonstrate whether the request for stop payment was received electronically and processed by Bank, and Depositor hereby agrees that Depositor, following submission of a stop payment request through IBC Online and/or IBC Link has a duty to review the information provided through IBC Online and/or IBC Link to ensure that the request was processed. If Depositor discovers that any request for stop payment transmitted through IBC Online and/or IBC Link does not, after a reasonable time, appear on the IBC Online and/or IBC Link record of stop payments, Depositor is obligated to notify Bank in writing of such immediately upon access of the information through IBC Online and/or IBC Link. Depositor and Bank further agree that should Depositor at any time fail to notify Bank of such, Depositor shall be expressly deemed to have failed to exercise ordinary care in the transmission of the stop payment request.

If the item has not been negotiated for cash, cash equivalents, subject to an executed payment order, and/or certified, and Bank has had a reasonable period of time after receipt of the request to act upon a proper and effective stop payment of such request, the deadline for receipt of a stop payment request is one (1) hour after the opening of the next banking day after the banking day on which Bank received the item. For purposes of this paragraph "banking day" is defined as Monday through Friday, from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm, excluding federal and state holidays or other posted Bank closings.

Stop payment orders for automated clearing house (ACH) items shall be subject to National Automated Clearing House Association rules as they may change from time to time. To the extent such rules vary from the provisions herein, the rules shall control.

Bank will not be held liable if an item is presented for payment and paid after a stop payment request has expired. In addition, Depositor assumes all liability if he or she elects not to use a stop payment request when available and attempts to avoid payment by means of any other method.

CONSUMER ACCOUNTS ONLY: For stop payment orders for recurring electronic transactions, please refer to the Electronic Funds Transfers/Automated Teller Cards and Checkcard Agreement and Disclosure.

UTMA ACCOUNTS: If it is noted on the signature card that the account was established under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act (UTMA), you understand that there can be only one custodian and one minor per account. No other parties are permitted. Your responsibility to us under this agreement will not be limited to the amount in the account.

BUSINESS AND OTHER NONPERSONAL ACCOUNTS: If Depositor is an entity, including corporation, professional corporation, limited liability company and/or partnership, unincorporated association, trust, partnership, limited partnership, sole proprietorship and/or other legal entity, however organized, Depositor, each Authorized Signatory, and each person signing this Agreement and/or any other account document, represents and warrants that (i) such person(s) is fully authorized to execute all documents executed, including the Deposit Account Agreement, and addendums, thereto, and any and all checks, drafts, withdrawal or transfer documents, payment orders or amendments or cancellations thereof, or any other items presented, in the capacity stated therein; (ii) Depositor has delivered to Bank all documents necessary to evidence such authority, and (iii) Depositor will furnish any additional documents which may be requested by Bank in such form as Bank may request. Bank is not required to recognize any resolution of any entity affecting this Account that is not in a form approved by Bank and its legal counsel. Endorsements of an entity for deposit may be written, stamped or affixed by non-manual means without designation of the person making the endorsement. Depositor guarantees and warrants all prior endorsements on all checks, drafts, other items, and/or withdrawal or transfer documents, and/or other instruments that previously have been delivered to Bank. Bank is authorized to honor any and all checks, drafts, other items, withdrawal or transfer documents payable to any officers, employees, directors, principals or agents of Depositor whether the presenter is signing or countersigning same, whether presented for cash or for credit to any other account, including the personal account of such officer, employee, director, principal or agent and Bank is not required to make any inquiry concerning such items or the person's actual authority to act on behalf of Depositor.

The authority herein conferred upon each Authorized Signatory shall not be revoked, altered or changed in so far as Bank is concerned and Bank shall not be affected or bound by any revocation, alteration or change of any authority until written notice of such revocation, signed by the President, Managing Partner, Trustee(s), Managing Member and/or chief principal of Depositor, shall have been delivered to the Bank and Bank has sufficient time to act upon such revocation. The notice must be delivered to the Bank, addressed to Dennis E. Nixon, President, International Bancshares Corporation, P.O. Drawer 1359, Laredo, Texas 78040-1359. Depositor agrees that it has the sole responsibility to provide a current and proper Corporate/Entity Resolution on Bank's approved form regarding authority of its agents/representatives/officers/members/employees to conduct Depositor's banking business. Depositor acknowledges and agrees that Bank may rely on the terms and conditions of this Deposit Account Agreement (and any and all amendments and/or addendums hereto) to determine who is properly authorized by Depositor to conduct Depositor's banking business regarding this Account, and further agrees that Depositor will not be allowed to assert any claim against Bank which may accrue and/or arise due to any conflict, if any, which may exist now or at any time in the future, between any Corporate/Entity Resolution delivered to Bank and this Deposit Account Agreement if Bank acts in compliance with any of the then current Corporation/Entity Resolutions or this Deposit Account Agreement.

UNLAWFUL INTERNET GAMBLING ENFORCEMENT ACT (UIGEA) OF 2006: The UIGEA, signed into law in 2006, prohibits any person engaged in the business of betting or wagering (as defined in the Act) from knowingly accepting payments in connection with the participation of another person in unlawful internet gambling. The Dept of Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board have issued a joint final rule, Regulation GG, to implement this Act.

As defined in Regulation GG, Unlawful Internet Gambling means to "place, receive or otherwise knowingly transmit a bet or wager by any means which involves the use, at least in part, of the internet where such bet or wager is unlawful under any applicable Federal or State law in the State or Tribal lands in which the bet or wager is initiated, received or otherwise made".

As a commercial customer of IBC/Commerce Bank, these restricted transactions are prohibited from being processed through your account or banking relationship with us. If you do engage in an Internet gambling business and open a new account with us, we will ask that you provide evidence of your legal capacity to do so.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION: Bank is hereby authorized to accept as being valid and correct and to rely on any and all documents and records presented in connection with the opening and closing of, or conducting any transaction(s) on this Account and is not obligated to determine if actual authority exists for any person to act on behalf of Depositor.

SPECIAL REPORTING OBLIGATION FOR TEXAS BUSINESS DEPOSIT CUSTOMERS:

Background: Texas Finance Code Chapter 277 provides that Texas business deposit customers must provide certain information to the Bank when opening their account. For purposes of this Agreement, you are a "Texas business deposit customer" if you maintain a business deposit account with the Bank and you are a "business" as defined in Texas Finance Code Chapter 277.001(1), which includes a sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, or any other legal entity formed for the purpose of making a profit. This law also provides that the Bank must request that the Texas business deposit customers provide Bank with updated information at least annually.

Agreement of all Texas Business Deposit Customers: By opening and maintaining a business account with the Bank, you agree to provide any updated information as required by Texas Finance Code Chapter 277 (described below) no later than December 31st of each year during which you maintain your account at the Bank.

You do not need to make any annual report if the information you previously provided has not changed during the preceding year. You only need to make any changes in the information described below during the preceding year.

Required Information: If your business is a sole proprietorship, Bank is required by Chapter 277 to request that you provide updated information for the following:

- ☐ Business owner's name
- ☐ Physical address of the business
- ☐ Business owner's home address
- ☐ Business owner's Texas driver's license number or Texas DPS ID card number

If your business is a corporation, partnership, limited partnership or limited liability company, Bank is required by Chapter 277 to request that you provide updated copies of the business's certificate of incorporation, partnership agreement, and certificate of limited partnership or articles of organization, as appropriate. If such business has adopted an assumed name, Bank is required by Chapter 277 to request that you provide a copy of the assumed name certificate. Please include the title of the account and the account number with any information updates.

Please send information updates to:
Dennis E. Nixon, President
International Bancshares Corporation
P.O. Drawer 1359
Laredo, Texas 78042-1359

III. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF DEPOSITOR AND BANK

ACCOUNTHOLDER RESPONSIBILITIES: Depositor acknowledges that they have a duty to manage their checking account in a responsible manner. Good account management means understanding options and making an informed choice about how to conduct transactions. This includes balancing your checkbook by recording all transactions, reviewing your monthly account statement, and tracking your account balance by using one of our FREE services such as IBC Voice, IBC Bank Online and/or IBC Mobile Banking. Keeping a balanced checkbook is the best way to avoid unnecessary fees.

CONVENIENCE SIGNERS: Any Authorized Signatory named in this Agreement, other than Depositor(s), is a Convenience Signer only, acts only as Depositor's agent with respect to transactions involving this Account, and has no ownership rights in and/or to the account funds unless otherwise expressly set forth in this Agreement. Authorized Signatories who are not Depositor, however, do have certain liabilities, obligations and duties pursuant to this Agreement.

MULTIPLE SIGNATURES: If this Account purports to require two or more signatures on any item, each Authorized Signatory acknowledges that such provision is solely for Depositor's personal or internal control purposes and is not binding on Bank. Bank will not be liable for paying any item lacking the required number of signatures, if such item bears at least one authorized signature.

NONMANUAL FORM OF SIGNATURE: If any items drawn on this Account are signed, countersigned and/or endorsed using any facsimile signature, stamp signature, mechanical signature, computer software generated signature or other non-manual form of signature (herein collectively referred to as "non-manual form of signature"), Depositor acknowledges that the use of such non-manual form of signature is solely for Depositor's benefit and convenience. Each Authorized Signatory accepts sole responsibility for maintaining security over any device utilized for affixing each authorized signature on this Account.

Any non-manual form of signature reasonably resembling any signature on file with Bank or affixed to any prior item which was accepted and paid and/or previously processed without objection will be effective as a genuine authorized signature of an Authorized Signatory and Bank is hereby authorized to debit this Account for payment of any item signed by such non-manual form of signature, regardless of whether the person affixing it was authorized to do so or not and regardless of when, or by whom or by what means the actual or purported non-manual form of signature may have been made or affixed thereto. Bank may also conclusively treat as authorized any signature that reasonably resembles the non-manual form of signature you have adopted as your own, whether such non-manual form of signature is affixed by the original or a duplicate of the signature device/stamp/program.

Any item presented for cash or other negotiation or deposited to this Account that bears a nonmanual form of signature endorsement reasonably resembling any signature on file with Bank or affixed to any item which was accepted and paid and/or previously processed without objection shall be deemed to bear a genuine authorized endorsement of an Authorized Signatory regardless of whether the person affixing it was authorized to do so or not and regardless of when, or whom, or by what means the actual or purported non-manual form of signature may have been affixed thereto.

DIGITAL SIGNATURE: A Digital Signature is an electronic identifier, created by a computer, intended by Depositor to have the same force and effect as the use of Depositor's manual signature and satisfies the Statute of Frauds. A Digital Signature involves the use of both private and public key encryption (i.e., use of a combination of private and public passwords to ensure that communication is authentic). All written electronic communications (including transmission of electronic data over telephone lines or fiber optic cables or stored on a computer disk) sent to Bank in connection with a transaction is considered signed if a Digital Signature is transmitted with such communication. The use of Digital Signature is subject to criminal laws pertaining to fraud and computer crimes. Signed for the purpose of this Agreement includes any record, not a writing, including attachments to or logical association with electronic symbol, sound, or process with the present intent to accept the record.

POWERS OF ATTORNEY: If Depositor presents Bank with a Durable Power of Attorney, Bank shall request a Certification from the agent and may also request an opinion of counsel as appears necessary from a review of the Power of Attorney. If the Power of Attorney is rejected, Bank will provide an explanation in the manner provided by state law. Bank may continue to recognize the authority of the agent (attorney in fact) named in the Power of Attorney until such time as it has actual knowledge of the termination of the agent's authority. The best way to inform the bank is to provide written notice of revocation or termination to the President of the International Bancshares Corporation, Dennis E. Nixon, President, P.O. Drawer 1359, Laredo, Texas 78042-1359. "Actual knowledge" of termination of the agent's authority does not exist until the bank has had a reasonable time after receipt and acknowledgment of such notice of revocation to act upon it.

DEPOSITOR'S DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The rights and duties set forth in this section apply to many types of transactions on your account; however, some electronic transactions are governed by other rules that differ from the provisions of this section. The rules described below in Other Rules For Electronic Transactions establish the rights and duties of Depositor and Bank for different forms of electronic transactions and the provisions under "Duty To Safeguard, Duty To Review Statements And Report Irregularities", and "Duty To Cooperate In Investigation" below may not apply to those transactions.

Duty To Safeguard

You have a duty to act carefully in your possession and use of your account records, checks, ATM and Debit Cards, Personal Identification Numbers (PINs), signature stamps, and other access devices. You are responsible for keeping these items and records safe and secure and to promptly notify the Bank if any are missing, in time to stop any misuse. The Bank will not be liable to pay you, and you will have no right to assert any legal claim against the Bank, for any losses resulting from your failure to safeguard these items and records and/or your failure to promptly notify the Bank when any are missing. If you voluntarily disclose your account information to another person orally, in writing, electronically, or by some other means, Bank may treat such disclosure as your authorization to that person to issue items drawn against your account. Until you notify the Bank that such items are not authorized, Bank shall not be liable to you for the payment of any and all such items, even though the items are not in accordance with the authorization you may have given to that person.

Duty To Review Statements And Report Irregularities

You have the duty to (i) promptly review each account statement and all items and transactions (or image of them) which are described with reasonable particularity in the account statement, to the extent necessary to discover any and all unauthorized transactions and/or errors, and (ii) timely notify the Bank in writing of any and all unauthorized transactions and/or errors. As specified below in this section, the Bank will not be liable to pay you, and you will have no right to assert any legal claims against the Bank, for any losses arising from your failure to promptly review the account statements and to timely notify the Bank of unauthorized transactions and/or errors.

Unauthorized transactions include forgeries, counterfeit items, unauthorized signatures, forged and unauthorized endorsements, altered items, and unauthorized electronic transactions. Errors include missing deposits, unposted withdrawals, credits posted as debits and debits posted as credits, deposits or withdrawals that do not pertain to the account, encoding errors, disputed fees, and any and all other irregularities or mistakes.

Bank may mail or otherwise make account statements available to you, including electronically. If you or any of your agents, request the Bank hold its mail and/or retain the account statements and/or account items and/or images thereof, or to not forward or hold the account statements and/or items as the account statement and items are available electronically through IBC Online Banking or IBC Link, you agree that Bank has made the account statements, account items and/or all other mail which could have been forwarded to you available to you as of the date when they would have otherwise been mailed and/or electronically available. Your account statements include the item number, amount, and the date the item posted to your account, which you agree provides sufficient information to identify the authenticity of any transaction, including whether any are unauthorized or in error.

You must provide notice in writing to the Bank of any and all unauthorized transactions or errors appearing in an account statement. If you fail to notify the Bank in writing of any and all unauthorized transactions or errors within sixty (60) days after the Bank mailed or made available to you the account statement describing the unauthorized transaction or error, you agree you will have no right to make a claim against the Bank and the Bank will not be liable to pay you for any loss resulting from the unauthorized transaction or error, and all transactions and amounts included in the account statement are deemed to be authorized and correct.

When an unauthorized transaction by a wrongdoer is described in an account statement, the Bank will not be liable to pay you and you will have no right to make a claim against the Bank for any loss relating to subsequent unauthorized transactions conducted by the same wrongdoer, if you fail to notify the Bank of the initial unauthorized transaction within fourteen (14) days after the account statement is mailed or made available to you.

You also agree you will have no right to make a claim against the Bank, and the Bank will not be liable to pay you, for any losses resulting from a forged or unauthorized endorsement if you fail to report it to the Bank within one hundred and eighty (180) days after the account statement referencing the item bearing the forged or unauthorized endorsement is mailed or made available to you.

To the extent any loss from unauthorized transactions or errors is caused by your negligent conduct, the Bank is not liable to pay you for such loss.

Duty To Cooperate In Investigation

You agree you have a duty to cooperate and assist in the Bank's investigation of any and all unauthorized transactions and errors, including the obligation to timely provide Bank with any records and/or facts relevant to the circumstances, and to file a police report and provide a copy to the Bank, and to execute any affidavits or sworn statements required by the Bank. You agree the account records shall be deemed to be correct and the Bank is relieved from investigating further should you fail to cooperate in any material respect. The Bank will have a reasonable amount of time to investigate the circumstances of any and all unauthorized transactions or errors and will not provide a provisional credit to your account during the investigation.

Other Rules For Electronic Transactions

Some forms of electronic transactions are subject to other rules that may be different than the provisions of the above mentioned sections. ATM and Debit card transactions on personal accounts are governed by Regulation E, a federal banking regulation. Automated Clearing House (ACH) transactions are subject to the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association. Wire transfers are governed by Chapter 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code. When you have a specific agreement with the Bank for a particular banking service, or whenever this Agreement contains provisions for a particular banking service, including these electronic funds transfers, you agree the provisions of this section supplement the specific agreement and/or provisions in this Agreement, to the extent they are not inconsistent. Additional rules may also apply to Substitute Checks, as explained in the Check 21 Disclosure provided to you at account opening.

BANK DUTY OF CARE: The Bank employs automated procedures for processing of checks and other encoded items for collection and payment consistent with commercially reasonable procedures widely used by financial institutions. Under these automated procedures, the Bank will not visually verify signatures on checks and items in almost all cases, and performs sight inspection of checks only over a certain amount of money as determined by the Bank from time to time. You agree Bank has limited duty to inspect limited information on checks as reasonably necessary to identify the drawer, the payee, the payor bank, the amount (numbers over words if contradictory), and any MICR encoded information. You agree the Bank has limited duty to verify signatures on checks and items presented for payment and collection, and the Bank's automated procedures constitute the exercise of ordinary care by Bank.

Depositor agrees and acknowledges that not all counterfeit checks can be detected by Bank's use of ordinary care.

Bank's policies and procedures are solely for its use and do not impose upon the Bank a higher standard of care than is otherwise established by applicable law or regulation.

Bank may process checks or other items drawn on this Account, or any electronic transfers and/or electronic transactions in any order (largest to smallest, smallest to largest, numerically or otherwise). Our current method is described in "OTHER TERMS GOVERNING ALL OVERDRAFTS, RETURN ITEMS, AND ADVANCES AGAINST UNCOLLECTED FUNDS" of this agreement. We may change our processing order at any time, and a change to the processing order may result in you being charged more insufficient funds fees.

COMPARATIVE NEGLIGENCE: Except where contrary to law, if your failure to exercise ordinary care substantially contributes to the forgery or alteration of an item which is paid against this Account, contributes to a loss due to a mistake in a deposit or charge against the Account, you will be precluded from asserting such forgery or alteration and/or mistake against Bank. If Bank asserts such a preclusion, and you establish that Bank's failure to exercise ordinary care substantially contributed to the loss resulting from the payment of the forged or altered item(s), and/or other mistake, the loss shall be allocated between Depositor and Bank on a comparative basis. Specifically, your acts and omissions which substantially contribute to the presentment and payment of any forged or altered item(s) and/or in the failure to notify Bank of the mistake will be compared to the acts or omissions of Bank to determine who should bear the loss or whether the loss should be allocated between you and Bank. Notwithstanding this comparative negligence standard, Bank will not be liable if items are forged or altered such that the forgery or alteration could not have been detected by a bank exercising ordinary care.

Except where contrary to law, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Bank will never be liable for, or responsible in any way for, any percentage of any alleged loss or damages purportedly resulting from an alteration, forgery, counterfeit items, unauthorized signature, and/or endorsement, or any other irregularity on any item, and/or in the Account, unauthorized Remotely Created Item, and/or electronic debit, which is greater than the percentage of any alleged loss or damages proximately caused by Bank's failure to exercise ordinary care, if any, regardless of the percentage of proximate causation, or even the complete absence thereof, of Depositor or any Authorized Signatory.

RIGHT OF SETOFF AND SECURITY INTEREST: In addition to all liens upon, and rights of setoff against, the monies, securities, or other property of any Authorized Signatory given Bank by operation of law, and/or in any other written agreement, each and every Authorized Signatory, jointly and severally, hereby grants to Bank a security interest in, and a right of setoff against, any and all moneys, securities or other property (except to the extent prohibited by applicable Federal and State laws) of each Authorized Signatory now, or hereafter, in the possession of, or on deposit with, Bank or any member bank or branch bank of International Bancshares Corporation, whether held in a general or special account or deposit, or for safekeeping or otherwise. Bank will not be liable for dishonoring items where the exercise of its right to setoff or foreclosure of its security interest results in collected available insufficient funds in this Account. To the extent allowed by law, (i) the security interests and rights of setoff granted herein shall secure payment of any and all indebtedness to Bank of each and every of the Authorized Signatories, or of any one or more of them, individually or jointly with others, now owed or hereafter owing to Bank, (ii) any indebtedness now or hereafter owing to Bank by each and every of the Authorized Signatories or by any one or more of them, either individually or jointly with others, may be charged to, and/or setoff against, any account at Bank or member bank or branch bank of International Bancshares Corporation, owned by, or in the name, of any Authorized Signatory or in the name of any Authorized Signatory and another or others (to the extent the joint account is an "or" account), and (iii) the security interests and rights of setoff granted herein may be exercised by Bank without any prior demand on, or notice to, any or all Authorized Signatories. No right of setoff shall be exercised as to loans secured by Depositor's homestead.

No security interest or right of setoff may be deemed to have been waived by any act or omission or other conduct of Bank, or by any failure to exercise any right of setoff or to enforce any security interest, or by any delay in so doing. Every right of setoff and security interest granted herein shall continue in full force and effect until such right of setoff or security interest is specifically waived or released in writing by Bank. Except as limited herein, Bank's security interest granted herein shall be collateral for any or all claims of, and/or debts due to, Bank by any Authorized Signatory. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the setoff rights, liens and/or security interests granted herein are not applicable to our collateral for any homestead equity loan. Each Authorized Signatory agrees that Bank's right of setoff applies to any item cashed or otherwise paid by Bank, if the item is returned unpaid for any reason and/or charged back against this Account and/or any other account of an Authorized Signatory who presented and/or participated in the presentment of the item and/or benefited in any way from the cashing and/or other payment of said item. The right of setoff includes creating or increasing a negative balance.

The funds held in joint accounts may be pledged by any Authorized Signatory as collateral for any debt of any Authorized Signatory to Bank and/or may be used to pay any indebtedness on which any Authorized Signatory is liable, individually or jointly with others, whether as primary obligor, as guarantor, or otherwise, and such pledge shall remain valid and enforceable after the death of the Authorized Signatory executing such pledge. Bank's right of setoff and security interest granted herein do not apply if the debt is created under a consumer credit card plan or if the debt is of an Authorized Signatory who is not the Depositor and his/her right to withdraw funds from this Account arises only in a representative capacity for an entity. Bank's liability and/or responsibilities, if any, for exercising any right of setoff and/or for any foreclosure of any security interest is expressly limited to reimbursement of the amount of net funds setoff and/or actually received by Bank.

To the extent allowed by law, in the event that any Authorized Signatory files or is subject to any bankruptcy proceeding or other liquidation proceeding, whether voluntary or involuntary, each Authorized Signatory agrees that Bank may place an administrative hold on this Account and/or on any and all other accounts of the Authorized Signatory who is the subject of the bankruptcy or other liquidation proceeding to the extent of the aggregate of all indebtedness, however created or incurred, of such Authorized Signatory, individually or jointly with others, whether or not any or all of such indebtedness is matured, past due or subject to acceleration or demand due to an existing default or an event of default which may mature into a default, in order to preserve and protect Bank's rights in and/or to the funds in such accounts, until Bank is paid in full and/or a court of competent jurisdiction enters a final order/judgment adjudicating Bank's rights and/or claims and/or to such account funds, or any portion thereof.

CLAIMS AND DISPUTES CONCERNING THE ACCOUNT: If any person or entity makes a claim against any funds in this Account, or if Bank has reason to believe that there is or may be a dispute over matters such as the ownership of this Account or any and/or all funds on deposit therein, or regarding the authority to transact any banking business regarding this Account, Bank may, in its sole and absolute discretion, (i) continue to rely on and recognize any authority provided in any of the Deposit Account Agreements and/or Entity/Corporate Resolutions and/or other account documents; (ii) freeze all or part of the funds in this Account until the dispute is resolved to Bank's satisfaction and any and all documents deemed necessary by Bank to resolve the dispute and/or protect Bank are executed and delivered to Bank, and/or (iii) interplead the account funds or any portion thereof into an appropriate court of law or arbitration proceeding for resolution of such claims and/or distribution of the funds, after deduction of Bank's reasonable attorney's fees and costs, and/or the exercise of its right of setoff and/or foreclosure of its security interest.

LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY:

- (a) Bank shall not be responsible for Depositor's or any other person's acts or omissions, including acts or omissions of any Authorized Signatory and/or of any clearing house, financial institution, correspondent, vendor, supplier, or other entity or person.
- (b) Bank shall not be liable for any consequential, special, punitive, statutory multiple, incidental, noneconomic or indirect loss or damage that Depositor may suffer or sustain in connection with business or commercial accounts governed by this Agreement.

GUARANTY AGREEMENT: Each Authorized Signatory does hereby, jointly and severally, if more than one, unconditionally guarantee and promise to pay Bank, in United States currency, any and all indebtedness of each other Authorized Signatory to Bank to the extent such indebtedness in any way or manner grows out of relates to, and/or arises from, this Agreement and/or this Account, whether such indebtedness is now existing or hereafter created or arising, absolute or contingent, whether joint, several, or joint and several, including all costs of collection (including its reasonable attorney's fees, costs and expenses). This is an absolute and continuing unconditional guaranty of payment and not of collectability. Each Authorized Signatory agrees that Bank may release, or waive its rights to, any collateral, if any, and/or renew, rearrange or extend from time to time, the time, manner, place or terms of payment of such indebtedness or any renewals or extensions thereof without notice to any Authorized Signatory and each Authorized Signatory hereby consents to such action, and/or agrees that any such action or omission by Bank will not release or discharge any Authorized Signatory from liability and/or obligation hereunder pursuant to this guaranty of payment.

INDEMNITY: Depositor and each Authorized Signatory agree to indemnify Bank against any loss, liability, or expense, including its attorney's fees, costs and expenses, resulting from or arising out of any acts and/or omission of Bank authorized by this Agreement, any breach of any of Depositor's/Authorized Signatory's representations and warranties set forth herein, and or any breach of any other obligation of any Depository/Authorized Signatory. Depositor and each Authorized Signatory further agree to indemnify the Bank against any loss, liability, and expense, including attorney's fees, costs, and expenses, resulting from or arising out of any claim of any person that Bank is responsible to, or for any act or omission of Depositor.

NO WAIVER: If Bank fails to exercise any right of Bank under this Agreement and/or has failed to require strict compliance with this Agreement or any part thereof, or has failed to declare a breach of this Agreement, Bank's prior failures to act are not a waiver of Bank's rights and/or privileges under this Agreement, and Bank may exercise such right and may insist on strict compliance and full enforcement in the future.

LEGAL ACTION RELATING TO BUSINESS/COMMERCIAL ACCOUNTS: In the event any legal action in a court of competent jurisdiction or an arbitration proceeding is commenced in connection with the enforcement of, or any declaration of, a right, duty or obligation under this Agreement, and/or the assertion of any controversy or claim involving in any way, relating to, or arising out of a business or commercial account, whether sounding in contract, tort, or statute, at law or in equity, the prevailing party may be entitled to recover all reasonable and necessary attorney's fees, paralegal costs (including allocated costs for in-house services), arbitration costs, fees/or expenses, costs of court, expert witness fees and costs, discovery costs, travel expenses, and any and all other necessary costs or expenses incurred in connection with any such action or proceeding, in an amount determined by the trier of fact.

NO ORAL REPRESENTATIONS/ENTIRE AGREEMENT:

(a) Depositor hereby expressly represents and warrants that Depositor did not rely on any representation, promise or other statement of Bank/and or its agents and employees relating to this Agreement or the subject matter thereof, except as expressly set forth herein, and it is Depositor's express intent to fully disclaim and disavow reliance on any such representation, promise or other statement.

(b) This Agreement contains the entire, complete and final agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior written or oral discussions, negotiations, representations, warranties and agreements, if any, between them with respect to the subject matter hereof, except as may be expressly stated herein.

IV. TRANSACTION PROCESSING OF CHECKS

TRANSACTION PROCESSING PROCEDURES: Bank may refuse to perform any requested act, transaction, and/or process, which it is not expressly obligated to perform under the terms of this Agreement. The only notice of Bank's refusal to perform any requested act, transaction and/or process will be provided in Depositor's periodic account statement.

Bank may modify its internal procedures, at any time, without notice, for any type of transaction that Bank deems necessary, in order to protect Bank and/or Depositor.

CHECK AND ITEM FORM SPECIFICATIONS: Depositor agrees that Bank may refuse to accept for deposit or to process any check, draft, payment order, withdrawal or transfer document, or other item that is presented in a form that cannot be processed and/or photographed using equipment that Bank regularly uses in its normal operations. If Bank, in its sole and absolute discretion and without any obligation or duty, accepts or pays any item that is not within Bank's form specifications, each such transaction is subject to additional fees and/or service charges as set forth in the Account Services And Fees Schedule.

Bank is expressly authorized to construe as "or" any symbol, mark or word (other than the word "and") or may imply "or" in the absence of any connective on the payee line of any check or other item containing multiple payees.

CHECK STOCK: Depositor agrees and stipulates that the check stock offered for purchase from and/or through Bank is printed on special paper which contains multiple features and watermarks to prevent/detect check fraud/duplication/counterfeiting and that the use of nonbank check stock increases significantly the risk of loss that may result from check fraud/duplication. Depositor further agrees that the risk of loss resulting from check fraud/duplication on check stock not purchased from or through Bank, to the extent such loss is not attributable to Bank's failure to exercise ordinary care, is shifted from Bank to Depositor.

DEPOSITOR ENCODED ITEMS: Items not encoded by Bank are nonconforming items, and are the sole responsibility of Depositor. Any item presented for payment, whether check, draft, withdrawal or transfer document, and/or other item or instrument of payment, must conform in all respects, including its encoded message, to Bank's processing system. Failure of any item to conform to Bank's processing system is agreed to be sole cause of Bank's payment of, or failure to pay, each nonconforming item. If our equipment is unable to read what we consider to be significant number of your items, and they are rejected, we may charge you additional fees. If we do charge you more, we may send you a notice. If there is an encoding error that results in costs or losses to us, you agree to reimburse us (and we charge your Account) for our claims, costs, losses and damages, including attorney's fees.

CREDITS FOR DEPOSITS: With regard to items received for deposit or collection, Bank acts only as Depositor's collecting agent and assumes no responsibility beyond its exercise of ordinary care. All credits to this Account are only provisional and are subject to final payment and to receipt by Bank at its own offices of proceeds of final payment in cash (in United States currency) or solvent credits, free from any claims, rights of setoff, and/or other charge back rights. Bank may forward items to correspondents for handling and shall not be liable for any default or negligence of any correspondent. Items and their proceeds may be handled by any Federal Reserve Bank in accordance with applicable Federal Reserve Rules and by Bank or any correspondent in accordance (i) with any general banking usage, (ii) with any accepted industry standard or practice, (iii) with any practice or procedure that a Federal Reserve Bank may use or permit any other bank to use, or (iv) with any other lawful means or practice.

Bank may charge back against this Account or any other account of Depositor at Bank, at any time allowed by law, any item drawn on this Bank which is returned unpaid or otherwise not good or payable.

If a deposited item, check, draft and/or automated clearing house entry is returned to Bank by the bank on which it is drawn, Bank may accept that return and charge the item back against this Account or any other account of Depositor at Bank, without regard to whether payor bank returned the item before its return deadline. Unless prohibited by applicable law or regulation, Bank may charge back to this Account, or to any other account of Depositor at Bank, the amount of any item deposited to this Account or negotiated for cash or cash equivalents, or certified, which item initially was paid by the payor bank and which is later returned due to an alleged forgery, unauthorized or missing endorsement, claim of alteration, encoding error or any other alleged problem or irregularity. Bank may process a copy or other evidence of a returned item in lieu of the original.

An item received after the time specified in the applicable availability funds notice for such banking location shall be deemed received the next business day. Bank reserves the right to post all deposits, including deposits of cash and of items drawn on it, not later than midnight of its next business day after their actual receipt by a Bank teller during regular banking hours for such banking location, or at any later time allowed by law, and Bank shall not be liable for damages, claims and/or expenses due to any item presented during any time period allowed herein.

When Bank accepts deposits and issues receipts, such deposits and receipts are subject to subsequent verification and correction, if necessary. If Bank discovers that, or receives satisfactory documentation that, an account entry was made in error or for an erroneous amount or is otherwise incorrect, Bank may debit this Account for the amount erroneously credited and/or take such other action as may be required to correct the error, and each Authorized Signatory agrees to reimburse Bank to the extent that the available funds in this Account at such time are insufficient to fully correct the error. In the event that any payment does not become final, and/or is corrected, the originator of the payment will not be deemed to have paid Depositor the amount of the erroneous credit. Each Authorized Signatory will be solely responsible for any loss, damage and/or expense caused by any failure to identify properly the account to which a deposit is made or intended to be made.

DEMAND DRAFTS: If you deposit a demand draft (an unsigned draft or a preauthorized draft) into your account, you warrant and guarantee that the draft is valid as drawn and authorized.

RETURN OF DEPOSITS: Bank, may, in its sole and absolute discretion and without reason or cause, return or refuse to accept any deposit in, transfer to or other credit to, in whole or in part, this Account at any time and will not be liable for doing so.

DELAY IN RETURN OF ITEMS: Depositor agrees that Bank will not be liable to you because an item you deposit in this Account is returned after the time set by applicable law if the delay in returning the item is caused by markings on the item in the space reserved for the depository bank's endorsement that were made by you or a prior endorser. Depositor will also be liable to Bank for any loss or expense, including without limitation, reasonable attorney fees, we incur because we are unable to properly return an item drawn on this Account within the time set by applicable law where the delay in properly returning the item is caused by markings on the item in the space reserved for the depository institution's endorsement that existed at the time you issued the item.

INCOMPLETE OR CONDITIONAL ITEMS: If any Authorized Signatory issues an item which is incomplete or conditional (such as "Void After 90 Days" or "Not Valid Over $500.00"), each Authorized Signatory acknowledges such provision or condition is solely for Depositor's convenience or internal control purposes, and agrees that Bank may pay such item, in its sole and absolute discretion, even if it is incomplete and/or the condition has not been fulfilled.

COLLECTION OF FOREIGN ITEMS AND EXCHANGES: Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, deposit of foreign funds, whether represented by currency, checks, drafts, other items, letters of credit, electronic transfers or any other form, are accepted for collection only and the amount of final credit to this Account shall be the amount in U.S. dollars actually received by Bank in exchange for the deposit of the foreign funds. Depositor bears all exchange rate risk. Bank is entitled to recover costs of collection, including reimbursement costs charged by foreign banks.

Depositor and Bank acknowledge that foreign money exchange transactions are contemplated under this Agreement. Depositor and Bank also contemplate and acknowledge that due to the urgency of time and the sensitivity of monetary markets, such transactions may be completed using only oral orders/instruction agreements. Depositor and Bank agree that in the event of a foreign money exchange transaction where the orders/agreements/instructions are only oral, the transaction form prepared and maintained by Bank regarding the foreign money exchange transaction and the terms of the oral orders/instructions/ agreements received by Bank shall be the only official record of such oral orders/instructions/agreements and that the information and terms set forth in such transaction form (including, but not limited to, the amount of currency to be bought or sold, the exchange rate, and the time that the orders/instructions/agreements were received, and were to be executed) shall conclusively control and govern regarding the parties' duties and rights in such transaction.

Collection of foreign items is subject to the Uniform Rules for Collection of Commercial Paper, International Chamber of Commerce.

ENDORSEMENTS: If any endorsement is placed on an item for deposit which is outside of the area extending 1 1/2 inches from the trailing edge of the check, draft or other item, or otherwise causes the endorsement of the first bank of deposit to be obscured in any way, and this causes a delay in the collection or return of the item, each Authorized Signatory will be responsible, jointly and severally, for any loss or expense Bank may incur as a result thereof. The trailing edge is defined as the left side of the item as viewed from the front.

GOOD FAITH DISBURSEMENT: Depositor agrees Bank shall not be liable for any good faith disbursement of funds from this Account, if Bank is relying on or acting on documentation presented and/or other information received which purports to provide any individual or entity a right to receive such disbursements.

DELAY IN AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS: If an item or other right to funds is deposited in, or credited to, this Account where the availability of such funds may be delayed pursuant to applicable state or federal law, then whether or not Bank has received final settlement, such funds are deemed unavailable to Depositor for the time period prescribed by law and/or set forth in the notification delivered to Depositor.

HOLDS ON ACCOUNT FUNDS: If Bank cashes or provides cash equivalents for a check or other item presented by any Authorized Signatory or his/her agent or representative, drawn on another bank, Bank is authorized to and may reduce the available funds of this Account by an equal amount. The funds subject to the administrative hold will be again available in this Account after receipt by Bank of final settlement for such check or other item.

DETERMINING YOUR ACCOUNT'S AVAILABLE BALANCE: Your Available Balance is the most recent record the Bank has of the funds available for your use or withdrawal. The Available Balance is also the balance that the Bank uses to determine whether you have overdrawn your account, or if you otherwise do not have sufficient funds to pay a transaction (also referred to as an "item"). An overdraft occurs when your account does not have a sufficient Available Balance to cover a transaction, but the Bank pays the transaction anyway. A Non-Sufficient Funds (N.S.F.) transaction occurs when an account does not have a sufficient Available Balance to pay a transaction, and the Bank returns the transaction unpaid.

The Bank calculates your Available Balance as follows: Starting with the Daily Ending Balance, which includes all transactions that have been presented to the Bank for payment and paid from your account, the Bank: (i) adds any deposits that are immediately available; then (ii) subtracts any holds on deposits; and then (iii) subtracts pending transactions that the Bank is aware of (such as pending debit card transactions that the Bank has authorized but that have not yet been presented to the Bank for payment and paid from your account).

The Available Balance does not include every transaction that you have initiated or that the Bank has authorized. For example, your Available Balance may not include:

- (i) debit card transactions that have been previously authorized but not sent to the Bank for final payment. For example, if a merchant does not submit a non-recurring debit card transaction for payment within three (3) business days of authorization (or other time period as specified in the payment network rules governing your card), the Bank must release the authorization hold on the transaction. After this time, the Available Balance will not reflect the transaction until it has been presented to the Bank for payment and paid from your account (i.e., “posted”).
- (ii) the amount of certain types of debit card transactions and transactions at certain locations, until the transactions post to your account. For example, at certain gas stations, the Bank may authorize an amount before the final amount is determined, and the transaction may not be reflected in the Available Balance until it posts to your account. For transactions at restaurants, the authorized amount will be reflected in the Available Balance (subject to network system limitations or outages), but the final amount (e.g., the amount including tip) may not be reflected in the Available Balance until it posts to your account.
- (iii) debit card transactions that the Bank was not asked to authorize, or that the Bank could not authorize due to network system limitations or outages.
- (iv) any checks that you have written, or withdrawals that you have authorized (such as recurring debit transactions) that have not been presented to the Bank for payment and paid from your account.
- (v) the full amount of recent deposits to your account, due to a deposit hold (see the section titled “Delay in Availability of Funds”).

Between the time that you entered into a particular transaction and when it is presented to the Bank for payment and paid from your account, you may enter into additional transactions, or other transactions may be presented for payment, thereby reducing the Available Balance. For example, a check that you write may not be presented to the Bank for payment until days, or even months, after you write the check. For debit card transactions, although the Bank may authorize the item at the time of the transaction, the item may not post to your account until days later (and in many cases, for an amount that is different from what the Bank had authorized). Accordingly, the Bank’s decision whether to assess a fee to your account for an item that overdraws your account or is returned unpaid/N.S.F. is made at the time the item posts to your account, and not when you enter into the transaction. An item may therefore incur an overdraft or N.S.F. fee even if you had a sufficient Available Balance at the time you entered into the transaction, or when the transaction was authorized by the Bank. However, Domestic Consumer Accounts will not be assessed overdraft charges for ATM or non-recurring debit card transactions if the Available Balance at the time of the transaction was sufficient to cover the authorized amount. You are encouraged to record all of your transactions, as you are in the best position to know the total amount of any transactions that are pending.

OVERDRAFT COURTESY FOR CERTAIN DOMESTIC CONSUMER ACCOUNTS: The Bank offers a discretionary overdraft service (the “Overdraft Courtesy Program”) for consumer accounts that (i) are held by Depositors who are United States citizens or Resident Aliens (“Domestic Consumer Accounts”); (ii) have been open for at least thirty (30) days; and (iii) are in good standing. A Domestic Consumer Account is an account primarily used for personal and household purposes.

Covered Transactions. Domestic Consumer Accounts are automatically enrolled in the Overdraft Courtesy Program for check transactions, in-person withdrawals, ACH transactions, bill pay transactions, automatic payments, and recurring debit card transactions, although Domestic Consumer Depositors may opt out of coverage for such transactions. Authorization and payment of overdrafts resulting from ATM or non-recurring debit card transactions for Domestic Consumer Accounts are subject to the Depositor’s decision to opt in to such coverage pursuant to the document titled “What you need to know about IBC Overdraft Courtesy and Overdraft Fees,” which is incorporated herein.

Discretionary service. The Bank is not obligated to authorize or pay any item if the account does not have a sufficient Available Balance. Any discretionary courtesy payment (or other negotiation or processing) by the Bank of any overdraft does not obligate the Bank to authorize or pay any additional or future overdraft. The Bank is not required to provide prior notice of its decision to refuse to pay any overdraft or return an item as N.S.F. Payment by the Bank of any reasonable overdraft on Domestic Consumer Accounts in good standing is only a courtesy and not a right or an obligation, is within the Bank’s sole and absolute discretion, and can cease at any time without prior notice or reason or cause. The Bank also reserves the right to decline to pay any overdraft if the Depositor is in default on any loan or other obligation to the Bank.

Maximum Allowable Amount. Any courtesy overdraft payments are generally subject to a Maximum Allowable Amount as described below. Please note that the Maximum Allowable Amount is subject to change without notice. Customers may verify the Maximum Allowable Amount information by viewing their account information online at IBC.com or by calling any IBC branch.

Domestic Consumer Accounts

“Free Checking” Accounts
i) open and in good standing for at least one year AND there have been two or more direct deposits totaling at least $600.00 within the past sixty (60) day period	Maximum Allowable Amount of $700.00 overdraft (negative) balance
ii) open and in good standing for at least one year OR there have been two or more direct deposits totaling at least $600.00 within the past sixty (60) day period	Maximum Allowable Amount of $500.00 overdraft (negative) balance
iii) all other Free Checking Accounts in good standing	Maximum Allowable Amount of $300.00 overdraft (negative) balance

Other Personal Checking Accounts
i) open and in good standing for at least one year AND there have been two or more direct deposits totaling at least $600.00 within the past sixty (60) day period	Maximum Allowable Amount of $900.00 overdraft (negative) balance
ii) open and in good standing for at least one year OR there have been two or more direct deposits totaling at least $600.00 within the past sixty (60) day period	Maximum Allowable Amount of $700.00 overdraft (negative) balance
iii) all other Personal Checking Accounts in good standing	Maximum Allowable Amount of $500.00 overdraft (negative) balance

The Maximum Allowable Amount will be reduced by the assessment of any fee(s). Customers are strongly encouraged to balance their checkbook and use any overdraft courtesy provided by the Bank in a responsible manner that avoids excessive fees.

“Good standing” requirement. A Domestic Consumer Account is considered to be in good standing if the Depositor: i) deposits $300.00 or more in the account within every thirty (30) day period; ii) brings the Daily Ending Balance to a positive amount within every thirty-five (35) day period; and iii) is not subject to any legal or administrative order or levy. Accounts that are enrolled in the Overdraft Courtesy Program but later fail to meet any of the good standing requirements may be suspended from the Overdraft Courtesy Program.

Closing of account. If an overdrawn account is not returned to a positive Daily Ending Balance within 45 days of the date it first became overdrawn, the Bank may close the account. Depositor and each Authorized Signatory will remain liable for any outstanding balances, including accrued fees, after account closure. Failure to bring the Daily Ending Balance positive within a thirty-five (35) day period can result in an adverse report to consumer reporting agencies.

Fees. For ATM or non-recurring debit card transactions, the Bank will assess an overdraft fee, in the amount described in the Schedule of Fees and Charges, each time i) the Available Balance at the time of a transaction was insufficient to cover the amount authorized; and ii) the Bank pays the transaction into overdraft. However, an overdraft fee shall not be assessed on ATM or non-recurring debit card transactions for Domestic Consumer Accounts unless Depositor has opted in to overdraft coverage for such transactions. For other types of transactions (e.g., checks and ACH transactions), the Bank will assess an overdraft fee, in the amount described in the Schedule of Fees and Charges, each time the Bank pays an overdraft. An overdraft fee shall not be assessed on a Domestic Consumer Account if the Available Balance is overdrawn by $3.00 or less after the processing of transactions at the end of each day.

Domestic Consumer Accounts may be assessed multiple overdraft fees up to a maximum of eight (8) overdraft fees per day. In addition, for accounts that have opted in to overdraft coverage for ATM and non-recurring debit card transactions, overdraft balances, including unpaid fees, will be assessed an overdraft interest charge at the rate of 17.75% per annum from the date of the overdraft until the date of receipt by the Bank of repayment of the entire outstanding balance. No interest will be charged on overdrafts incurred by Domestic Consumer Accounts that have not opted in to overdraft coverage for ATM and non-recurring debit card transactions.

Items presented for payment against insufficient funds that are not paid into overdraft will be returned as N.S.F. and will be assessed an N.S.F./Return Item Fee in the amount described in the Schedule of Fees and Charges. There is no limit on the number of N.S.F./Return Item Fees that may be assessed per day. N.S.F./Return Item Fees are not charged for ATM or debit card transactions.

Fees are subject to change. Depositors will receive advance notice of any fee increase in accordance with applicable law.

OVERDRAFT COURTESY FOR CERTAIN BIZ RITE ACCOUNTS: The Bank offers a discretionary overdraft service (the “Overdraft Courtesy Program”) for Biz Rite Accounts that (i) are held by U.S.-resident businesses (“Biz Rite Accounts”); and (ii) have been open for at least thirty (30) days.

Covered Transactions. Biz Rite Accounts are automatically enrolled in the Overdraft Courtesy Program for all types of transactions, although Depositors may opt out of coverage.

Discretionary service. The Bank is not obligated to authorize or pay any item if the account does not have a sufficient Available Balance. Any discretionary courtesy payment (or other negotiation or processing) by the Bank of any overdraft does not obligate the Bank to authorize or pay any additional or future overdraft. The Bank is not required to provide prior notice of its decision to refuse to pay any overdraft or return an item as N.S.F. Payment by the Bank of any reasonable overdraft on Biz Rite Accounts is only a courtesy and not a right or an obligation, is within the Bank’s sole and absolute discretion, and can cease at any time without prior notice or reason or cause. The Bank also reserves the right to decline to pay any overdraft if the Depositor is in default on any loan or other obligation to the Bank.

Maximum Allowable Amount. Any courtesy overdraft payments are generally subject to a Maximum Allowable Amount as described on next page. Please note that the Maximum Allowable Amount is subject to change without notice. Customers may verify the Maximum Allowable Amount information by viewing their account information online at IBC.com or by calling any IBC branch.

Biz Rite Accounts

i) open and in good standing for at least one year AND there have been two or more direct deposits totaling at least $600.00 within the past sixty (60) day period	Maximum Allowable Amount of $1,100.00 overdraft (negative) balance
ii) open and in good standing for at least one year OR there have been two or more direct deposits totaling at least $600.00 within the past sixty (60) day period	Maximum Allowable Amount of $900.00 overdraft (negative) balance

iii) all other Biz Rite Accounts in good standing	Maximum Allowable Amount of $500.00 overdraft (negative) balance
iv) Biz Rite Accounts enrolled in Overdraft Courtesy that are not in good standing	Maximum Allowable Amount of $0.00 overdraft (negative) balance. However, the Bank may authorize and pay overdraft transactions at its discretion and assess applicable fees and interest.

The Maximum Allowable Amount will be reduced by the assessment of any fee(s). Customers are strongly encouraged to balance their checkbook and use any overdraft courtesy provided by the Bank in a responsible manner that avoids excessive fees.

“Good standing” requirement. A Biz Rite Account is considered to be in good standing if the Depositor: i) deposits $300.00 or more in the account within every thirty (30) day period; ii) brings the Daily Ending Balance to a positive amount within every thirty-five (35) day period; and iii) is not subject to any legal or administrative order or levy.

Closing of account. If an overdrawn account is not returned to a positive Daily Ending Balance within 45 days of the date it first became overdrawn, the Bank may close the account. Depositor and each Authorized Signatory will remain liable for any outstanding balances, including accrued fees, after account closure. Failure to bring the Daily Ending Balance positive within a thirty-five (35) day period can result in an adverse report to consumer reporting agencies.

Fees. The Bank will assess an overdraft fee, in the amount described in the Schedule of Fees and Charges, each time the Bank pays an overdraft. An overdraft fee will be assessed for each transaction that posts to an account with a negative Available Balance, even if the account had a positive Available Balance at the time of the transaction. There is no limit on the number of overdraft fees that may be assessed to Biz Rite Accounts per day. In addition, overdraft balances, including unpaid fees, will be assessed an overdraft interest charge at the rate of 17.75% per annum from the date of the overdraft until the date of receipt by Bank of repayment of the entire outstanding balance.

Items presented for payment against insufficient funds that are not paid into overdraft will be returned as N.S.F. and will be assessed an N.S.F./Return Item Fee in the amount described in the Schedule of Fees and Charges. There is no limit on the number of N.S.F./Return Item Fees that may be assessed per day. N.S.F./Return Item Fees are not charged for ATM or debit card transactions.

OVERDRAFT COVERAGE FOR OTHER ACCOUNTS (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, FOREIGN CONSUMER ACCOUNTS AND COMMERCIAL ACCOUNTS): The Bank may choose, at its sole and absolute discretion, to pay overdrafts for accounts other than Domestic Consumer Accounts and Biz Rite Accounts (for example, consumer accounts maintained by non-United States citizens or non-Resident Aliens and other business accounts). For such accounts, the Bank will assess an overdraft fee, in the amount described in the Schedule of Fees and Charges, each time the Bank pays an overdraft. An overdraft fee will be assessed for each transaction that posts to an account with a negative Available Balance, even if the account had a positive Available Balance at the time of the transaction. There is no limit on the number of overdraft fees that may be assessed per day. In addition, overdraft balances, including unpaid fees and/or any amount advanced against uncollected funds, will be assessed an overdraft interest charge at the rate of 17.75% per annum from the date of the overdraft until the date of receipt by Bank of repayment of the entire outstanding balance and/or the amount advanced.

Items presented for payment against insufficient funds that are not paid into overdraft will be returned as N.S.F. and will be assessed an N.S.F./Return Item Fee in the amount described in the Schedule of Fees and Charges. There is no limit on the number of N.S.F./Return Item Fees that may be assessed per day. N.S.F./Return Item Fees are not charged for ATM or debit card transactions.

Fees are subject to change. Depositors will receive advance notice of any fee increase in accordance with applicable law.

OTHER TERMS GOVERNING ALL OVERDRAFTS, RETURN ITEMS, AND ADVANCES AGAINST UNCOLLECTED FUNDS: The Bank will not be liable for failure to pay or honor any item or withdrawal request unless the Available Balance is sufficient to cover the transaction. Fees and/or interest charges for N.S.F. transactions, overdrafts, or items presented against uncollected funds are service charges for the processing and handling of such items and not charges for the use, forbearance, or detention of money. These service charges are more fully described in the Schedule of Fees and Charges.

The Bank will charge only one N.S.F./Return Item Fee for an item presented for payment against insufficient funds; provided, however, that the Bank may charge a N.S.F./Return Item Fee for an item presented for payment against insufficient funds that has previously been presented and assessed a N.S.F./Return Item Fee if the item was modified by the payee such that it is not apparent that the item had previously been presented.

Transactions may not be processed in the order in which they occur. The order in which transactions are processed can affect the total amount of overdraft/N.S.F. fees incurred. The Bank reserves the right to clear items in any order, as permitted by law. It is the Bank's policy to clear items in the following order: (i) any wire transfers from lowest to highest dollar amount; (ii) items the Bank has already paid or committed to pay (such as ATM withdrawals, teller cash withdrawals, transfers, debit card transactions or point of sale withdrawals) or bank fees, from lowest to highest dollar amount; (iii) checks and ACH withdrawals from lowest to highest dollar amount.

Each Authorized Signatory shall be jointly and severally liable for any and all overdrafts on this Account, including all service charges and fees and interest charged due to such overdrafts, and for any attorney's fees and related collection costs incurred by the Bank regarding any and all efforts made to collect such overdraft, whether or not the overdraft was incurred by one or more of the Authorized Signatories, without the knowledge of, agreement from and/or any benefits resulting to, any other Authorized Signatory.

The total of any overdraft (negative) balance, including any and all Bank fees and charges, such as N.S.F. fees, overdraft fees, and overdraft interest charges, is due and payable upon demand. The Depositor and each Authorized Signatory will continue to be liable, jointly and severally, for all such amounts. The next deposit(s) to an overdrawn account, including payroll deposits made by an employer, government benefit deposits, and other direct deposits, will be applied immediately to the amount that the account is overdrawn plus the Bank's fees.

Any payment on one or more occasion of an item that will create an overdraft or that will be an advance against uncollected funds does not obligate the Bank to allow or pay any additional or future overdraft or advance against uncollected funds. Nothing contained herein shall imply that Bank's allowance, or payment, of one or more overdrafts or advances against uncollected funds, will create a revolving line of credit, a continuing obligation on the part of Bank to overdraw or advance against uncollected funds or any other financing arrangement between Depositor, any Authorized Signatory, and/or Bank.

WAIVER OF PROTEST, DISHONOR, NONPAYMENT: Each Authorized Signatory agrees to waive demand, protest and notice of dishonor or nonpayment regarding any items deposited to this Account or presented for cash or other negotiation. Any warranty and/or other liability of any Authorized Signatory as an endorser will not be released by Bank by obtaining verification regarding any presented or deposited item.

CASH WITHDRAWALS:

- (i) With regard to Main Bank locations, Bank may, in its sole and absolute discretion, for security reasons, limit cash withdrawals, whether one or more, from this Account (a) to no more than $75,000.00 (in the aggregate) on any one banking day, (b) and to no more than $150,000.00 (in the aggregate) during any seven (7) consecutive calendar day period. Any and all additional available collected funds (as determined by Bank's Availability Policy) in this Account may be withdrawn or transferred by any noncash means or method including by cashier's check, bank teller's check, or wire or other electronic transfer, in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and all other applicable policies and procedures of Bank. Any request that Bank considers, in its sole and absolute discretion, to constitute a cash withdrawal in excess of the specific limitations set forth herein must be in writing, signed by Depositor, and delivered to the Account Officer for this Account at least five (5) calendar days prior to the requested withdrawal date.
- (ii) With regard to non main Bank locations, Bank may, in its sole and absolute discretion, for security reasons, limit cash withdrawals from any branch (not including the Main Branch), motor banks, and/or instore banking locations, to $1,000.00 per transaction.
- (iii) Depositor agrees that any noncustomer who attempts to present an item for payment at any Bank branch and/or location may be required to present that item in the lobby area of such location and may be restricted from presenting the item for payment through the motor bank. Depositor further agrees that should a noncustomer refuse to present any item for payment inside the lobby of any Bank branch and/or location, if required to do so, Bank may decline to pay the item regardless of the availability of funds in this Account.

ELECTRONIC PRESENTMENT: This Account may be debited on the day an item or requested authorization is presented by electronic or other means, or at an earlier time based on notification received by Bank that an item drawn on this account has been deposited for collection in another financial institution, or that an item deposited into this Account, is being returned. A determination of the account balance for purposes of making a decision to dishonor an item for insufficiency of collected available funds may be made at any time between the receipt of such presentment or notice and the time of return of the item, and no more than one such determination need be made.

LOST CHECKS: When we cash a check for you or accept a check for deposit to your Account, we are acting as your agent in collecting the check. We are not responsible if the check is lost or delayed in the collection process. If the check is lost during the collection process, we may charge your account for the amount of the check. If the financial institution on which the check is drawn gives us a photocopy or electronic image of the check or debit slip representing the check, we may charge your account for the amount of the check. You agree to recreate the transaction and/or provide Bank all information requested regarding such lost item.

A lost check may not be returned to us for some time. Despite any delay, we may charge your Account when we receive either the returned check, a copy of the check, or a notice of return.

STALEDATED ITEMS: Bank is not required to pay any item presented more than six months after its date. However, Bank may in its sole discretion pay such item in good faith, and Depositor agrees that Bank is acting in good faith as long as there is not a stop payment order in effect when it pays the item.

POSTDATED ITEMS: Each Authorized Signatory agrees not to issue postdated checks or other items. If postdated checks or other items are issued by any Authorized Signatory, Bank may return them unpaid, or if paid by Bank, prior to date of check or item, in its sole and absolute discretion, Bank is released from and indemnified for, and held harmless from, any and all claims, damages and/or costs, including its reasonable attorney's fees and costs, related to paying, accepting or certifying such postdated checks and/or other items prior to the date set forth on said check(s) and/or other item(s) unless Authorized Signatory has given notice to the Bank of the postdated item by describing the check with reasonable certainty.

DIRECT DEPOSIT OF GOVERNMENTAL ITEMS: If, in connection with a direct deposit plan, Bank deposits any amount in this Account which should have been returned to the Federal Government for any reason, each Authorized Signatory authorizes Bank to deduct the amount of any liability to the Federal Government from this Account or from any other account at Bank without prior notice and at any time, except as prohibited by law. Bank may also use any other remedy to recover the amount of Bank's liability.

SOCIAL SECURITY DIRECT DEPOSIT ACCOUNT: Depositor and each Authorized Signatory hereby acknowledge that Social Security Benefits directly deposited into this Account have special protections and exemptions, yet knowingly hereby expressly agree that any amount of Social Security Benefits directly deposited into this Account are subject to overdraft charges, fees and interest and may be applied to the payment thereof.

FREE CHECKING NOTICE AND DISCLOSURE: THE FOLLOWING NOTICE AND DISCLOSURE IS APPLICABLE IF THIS ACCOUNT IS SUBJECT TO "FREE CHECKING" FOR CONSUMER AND/OR SOLE PROPRIETORSHIP ACCOUNTS: Account inquiries are provided through IBC's automated voice response system, IBC Voice and through IBC Online Banking. These inquiries include, but are not limited to balance inquiries, checks paid, and deposit information. The services included within IBC Voice and IBC Online Banking may change from time to time. Account inquiries outside of IBC Voice and IBC Online Banking will be subject to an inquiry service charge.

Error resolution and/or error disputes may be referred to any IBC customer service representative at any time.

CHECK 21 – SUBSTITUTE CHECKS AND YOUR RIGHTS: To make check processing faster, federal law permits banks to replace original checks with "substitute checks." These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original check. The front of a substitute check states: "This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check." You may use a substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check.

Some or all of the checks described in your account statement may be substitute checks. This notice describes rights you have when you receive substitute checks from us. The rights in this notice do not apply to original checks or to electronic debits to your account. However, you have rights under other law with respect to those transactions.

Details on your rights and how to submit a claim are set forth in the Check 21 Disclosure provided to you when you opened your account.

If you deposit a substitute check into your Account, you give us the same warranties and indemnities that we, as reconverting bank, would give under Check 21 regulations.

IMAGE CHECK SAFEKEEPING: In lieu of returning each of your paid checks and other items, Bank may provide the check number, amount and date of payment in your account statement, electronically or otherwise, together with images of the front of all of your canceled checks and other items displayed in check number order on a Bank Image page. As soon as an item is copied it may be destroyed. Within a reasonable time after the Bank received your request, it will furnish a copy of both front and back of such item within the required retention period. Depositor continues to be responsible for notifying Bank in writing of any unauthorized signature, lack of signature, alteration or other irregularity within the time periods described herein.

TRUNCATED ACCOUNT SAFEKEEPING: Depositor agrees and stipulates that if he or she selects a truncated account, in lieu of providing an image of each paid check or other item, Bank will provide to Depositor only a periodic account statement containing a check number, amount and date of payment and will not provide to Depositor the original checks or other items or images of such original checks or other items. As soon as an item is copied it may be destroyed. Subject to Bank's fees and charges, within a reasonable time after Bank received a request for a copy of an item within the statutory required retention period, it will furnish a copy of both front and back of such item. Depositor's duties of review and notice regarding any improper account activity, including maker or endorser forgery, alteration, and/or any and all others set forth in this Agreement remain in full force and effect.

V. TRANSACTION PROCESSING ELECTRONICALLY

REMOTELY CREATED ITEMS: If you deposit a remotely created item (an unsigned draft or a preauthorized draft) into your account, you warrant and guarantee that (i) the draft is valid as drawn and is authorized, (ii) the Check Image accurately represents all of the information on the front and back of the original check, and that all such information is legible on the Check Image; and (iii) no person will receive presentment of the original check, a substitute check based on the original check, or a paper or electronic representation of the original check or a substitute check, such that the person will be asked to make a payment based on a check that it has already paid.

CONVERTING CHECKS TO ELECTRONIC DEBITS: Some businesses use a procedure to convert checks that are drawn on your Account with us into electronic debits.

If you authorize the conversion of your check into an electronic debit, funds may be withdrawn from your account sooner than the funds would have been withdrawn had the original paper check been sent to us for payment. We charge any such electronic debit to your account when we receive it. We may receive the electronic debit to your account immediately after the business enters the transaction so you may have reduced opportunity to stop payment and you may incur an overdraft fee or return item fee if you do not have sufficient funds in your account to cover the amount of the check at the time you write the check or authorize the transaction. Since the check is not sent to us for processing, we do not have a copy of your check. You should retain a copy of your checks for your records. Checks converted to electronic debits will appear in electronic activity section in your account statement.

AUTOMATED CLEARING HOUSE ("ACH") PROVISIONS:

NOTICE OF RECEIPT OF ACH ITEMS: Under the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association which are applicable to ACH transactions involving this Account, Bank is not required to give next day notice to you of receipt of an ACH item, and Bank will not do so. However, Bank will continue to notify you of the receipt of payments in the periodic statements Bank provides to you.

PROVISIONAL PAYMENT: Credit given by Bank to you with respect to an automated clearing house credit entry is provisional until Bank receives final settlement. If Bank does not receive final settlement, you are hereby notified and agree that Bank is entitled to a refund of any and/or all of the amount credited to you in connection with such entry, and the party making payment to you via such entry (i.e., the originator of the entry) shall not have been deemed to have paid you the amount of such entry.

CHOICE OF LAW FOR ACH TRANSACTIONS: Bank may accept, on your behalf, payments in your account which have been transmitted through one or more Automated Clearing Houses and which are not subject to the Electronic Fund Transfer Act. Your rights and obligations with respect to such payment shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association.

FUNDS TRANSFER AUTHORIZATION AND AGREEMENT: To the extent Depositor utilizes Bank's funds transfer services, Depositor hereby directs and authorizes Bank to transfer funds from this Account to specifically designated accounts, whether such accounts are with Bank or with another financial institution, and to further execute funds transfer instructions and/or payment orders and to receive funds to be deposited in this Account, pursuant to the following terms and conditions:

(a) PAYMENTS ORDERS AND FUNDS TRANSFERS:

- (1) Bank is authorized to act on any oral or written directions whether delivered or communicated to Bank in person, by messenger, by telephone, telegraph, facsimile transmission, telex, U.S. mail, approved automated or electronic transmission or in other manner mutually agreed upon in writing by Bank and Depositor, and Bank shall be entitled to rely on any writing, letter, telex, teletype message, cablegram, statement, order, instruction, or other written communication, or any telephone or personal conversation believed by Bank in good faith to have been signed, forwarded, delivered and/or communicated by any Authorized Signatory and/or any other authorized representative or agent of Depositor.
- (2) Bank shall be under no obligation to comply with any payment order or to make any funds transfer which would exceed the available collected balance of funds in this Account.
- (3) Depositor shall have no right to cancel or amend any payment order after it is accepted by Bank, unless Bank otherwise agrees in writing.
- (4) In the event of an erroneous or otherwise irregular funds transfer, Bank may, but shall not be obligated to, on its own initiative or pursuant to Depositor's request, ask the receiving bank, the beneficiary's bank or the beneficiary of the funds transfer, to return the funds previously transferred in error on behalf of Depositor.
- (5) A payment order issued by Depositor is paid at the time the payment order is executed, at the time the transfer is credited to the beneficiary's account on the books of Bank, or at the time the advice of credit of such funds transfer is forwarded or otherwise communicated to the beneficiary by Bank, whichever occurs first.
- (6) Bank is authorized to record any telephonic or other oral instructions received by Bank from Depositor regarding funds transfers or receipts; however, Bank has no duty to record and/or maintain any record of Depositor's oral instructions by audio tape or handwritten notes.
- (7) Bank may handle and/or execute payment orders received from Depositor and/or from other Bank customers in any order selected by Bank, in its sole and absolute discretion, regardless of time and/or order of sequence of receipt by Bank, and Bank may use any means, methods, or routes which it, in its sole and absolute discretion, may consider suitable for executing each separate payment order.
- (8) Bank may establish, designate and provide notice of a cutoff time or opening and closing times for each Bank or branch location as a "funds transfer business day" for the receipt and processing of payment orders and communications canceling or amending payment orders. Any payment order or communication received after the designated and noticed closing times or on a Saturday, Sunday, or any bank holiday observed by the Bank location where the payment order or other communication is delivered, shall be deemed received by Bank on the next "funds transfer business day".
- (9) Bank and any subsequent receiving bank may execute payment orders for the transfer of funds to a beneficiary in the name of the beneficiary and/or solely by an account number of the beneficiary furnished to Bank by Depositor or other sender. In the event there is any discrepancy between the name of the designated beneficiary and account number, the payment order may be executed by reference to the account number only.

(b) SECURITY PROCEDURES: Depositor will be subject to the following security procedures:

- (1) Bank, at its option, may verify that a payment order or communication amending or canceling a payment order is that of Depositor by calling Depositor at a telephone number provided by Depositor as maintained in the bank's records. This telephone or cell number may be changed by written notice of Depositor or by phone via the call center, upon being properly identified through bank's security tokens. Bank may verify the payment order requested by Depositor through electronic voice message or text via cell phone provided by Depositor as maintained in the bank's records.

- (2) Bank may require that Depositor identify itself in connection with each payment order by use of a security code furnished by Bank. Bank shall not be obligated to execute any transfer to which the security code is applicable unless the authorized Depositor representative who places the payment order uses the proper security code. Bank may change such security codes at any time upon notice to any authorized Depositor representative. Depositor agrees to keep each such security code confidential and Bank shall have no liability for losses occasioned by unauthorized access to, and/or use of, security codes.
 - (3) Bank, may in its sole discretion, elect not to act upon a payment order if the payment order is not initiated in accordance with agreed security procedures, if Bank is unable to obtain proper verification of such payment order to Bank, or is otherwise suspicious regarding the payment order, if there is any inconsistency between a payment order and information previously supplied to Bank. If Bank acts on a payment order it believes in good faith is authorized by Depositor, it will have no liability for executing a payment order.
 - (4) You agree to these security procedures and agree that they are reasonable.
- (c) REVIEW OF STATEMENTS AND ADVICES: In addition to Depositor's other review obligations set forth herein and under law, Depositor agrees to review promptly and reconcile Depositor's statements of account made available by Bank and shall report to Bank's Funds Transfer Department any discrepancies, errors, inaccuracies, unauthorized requests, or objections of any other type or nature between Bank's records and Depositor's records within a reasonable time, not to exceed fourteen (14) calendar days from the earlier of the date of advice or the date the statement of account. The failure of Depositor to notify Bank of any discrepancies, errors, or other objections within such specified time period will relieve Bank of any liability to Depositor.
- (d) COMPENSATION: Subject to the Review of Statements And Advices provision above, compensation, if any, for the loss of interest or use of funds due Depositor caused solely by a Bank's error or Bank's failure to execute a transfer request no later than one banking day after the date received (if such request was received prior to Bank's funds transfer deadline) and when such execution or error was within Bank's sole control, will be for a period not exceeding the lesser of sixty (60) days or the period between the date of the request and the date of actual transfer or error correction, and will be in either of the following forms at the option of Bank: (i) adjusting Depositor's account balance at Bank to reflect the average balances that would have resulted had no error occurred; or (ii) reimbursing Depositor an amount equal to accrued interest at the average Federal Funds rate of the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank computed on a daily basis for the period and on the amount in question. In any event, Bank shall not be liable for any claimed damages arising out of or in connection with a payment order or funds transfer after one year from the date of such payment order or funds transfer.
- (e) RESPONSIBILITY OF BANK:
- (1) Bank shall have no responsibility or liability for any inaccuracy, interruption or delay in transmission and/or for claims occasioned by any circumstances, including any act or failure to act by a third person or entity, beyond Bank's reasonable control unless caused by Bank's gross negligence or willful misconduct.
 - (2) Depositor will hold Bank harmless and indemnify Bank for any claims, demands, expenses (including but not limited to attorney's fees and costs), loss or damage of any nature whatsoever arising directly or indirectly from any payment order issued by Depositor pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, any Amendment to this Agreement, or other matters related to this Agreement, except for liability of Depositor caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Bank. In no event shall Bank be liable for, and Depositor hereby releases Bank and its correspondents and agents from liability for, any punitive, multiple, statutory, special, consequential or incidental damages, even if Bank has been informed of the possibility of such damages.
 - (3) Depositor will assume full responsibility for all transfers executed by Bank in good faith, and in accordance with these procedures, agrees that Bank shall be conclusively deemed to have discharged its duty to act in good faith if it has followed the transfer procedures set forth in this Agreement, and agrees that Bank assumes no responsibility beyond its duty to exercise ordinary care.
 - (4) Bank's liability, if any exists, is discharged to the extent of any payment remitted to beneficiary from any source, including Depositor.

- (f) FEES: Depositor will pay Bank for services under this Agreement in accordance with Bank's Account Services And Fees Schedule, as amended from time to time. Bank may deduct any fees or other charges due under this Agreement from this Account or any other account of Depositor and may deduct its fees for an incoming funds transfer from the funds received. Depositor agrees to pay Bank for all fees and charges upon demand. Bank may require advance payment of fees and charges and a deposit be made to cover such charges.

(g) NOTICES:

- (1) Any notice required to be given under this Agreement by Depositor shall be in writing and signed by Depositor, and shall be considered to be provided when received and accepted by an officer in Bank's Funds Transfer Department and after Bank has had a reasonable opportunity to act on it. In the case of any notice required to be given under this Agreement by Bank, except to amend its terms and conditions and/or the fees and charges, such notice may be given in writing and shall be effective when placed in a U.S. Mail receptacle or forwarded by facsimile transmission to Depositor.
- (2) Bank may, in its sole discretion, act upon any form of notice which it in good faith believes to be genuine.
- (3) Bank may reject any payment order which fails to comply with this Agreement or, unless communicated by IBC Link, that sets forth a payment date more than one banking day after date of receipt by Bank of the payment order. Bank shall notify Depositor of its rejection of the payment order and shall have no liability as result of such rejection.

(h) REPRESENTATIONS OF DEPOSITOR:

Depositor represents that:

- (1) Each beneficiary or other receiver named in a payment order has authorized the initiation of the payment order and the crediting of its account in the amount of the payment order on or after the payment date shown on the payment order, and that such authority is effective from the time of the payment date or transmittal date shown on the payment order.
- (2) Depositor will perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations.
- (3) Depositor acknowledges that with the rise in internet fraud, security procedures or systems shall be implemented and maintained by Depositor to prevent wrongdoers from hacking or compromising Depositor's computer systems and access devices. If security procedures are not properly maintained, Depositor's data could be breached. For example, a wrongdoer disguised as an intended beneficiary requests a funds transfer to the wrongdoer's bank account from Depositor who, believing the request is from an intended beneficiary, executes a payment order to the Bank and the funds transfer is made to the wrongdoer. Under these circumstances, the Depositor is deemed to have acted negligently and the Bank shall not be liable for any loss suffered as a result of the funds transfer.

POSITIVE PAY: If Depositor and Bank have entered into any agreement relating in any way to positive pay services, the agreements, terms and conditions and disclosures are incorporated herein for all purposes.

ATM OR DEBIT CARD: Subject to the Order of Payment provision above, each Authorized Signatory agrees and acknowledges that any use of an ATM or Debit Card will immediately reduce the available funds in this Account by at least the amount communicated, electronically or otherwise, to Bank, whether communicated as a withdrawal, transfer to another account, completed vendor transaction, authorized administrative hold for payment of a pending or future vendor transaction, or any other transaction, however structured and/or designated. Bank has an absolute right to rely on the information electronically or otherwise communicated to Bank regarding any use or the attempted use of an ATM or Debit Card, and Bank has no duty or obligation to make any inquiry regarding the authority of the user or the accuracy of any information communicated to Bank regarding any ATM or Debit Card transaction.

For Commercial ATM or Debit Card, to the extent allowed by law, any transaction, including without limitation, transfers or withdrawals of cash from, and/or direct debits to or direct debits from, or administrative holds on, this Account, and/or any other use of any ATM or Debit Card, together with its designated P.I.N., is hereby agreed to be, and is deemed to be, an authorized transaction benefiting Depositor, and Bank is relieved of any liability for processing such transaction, regardless of whether it was properly payable from and/or debited to this Account and whether Depositor received any benefit. It is agreed and stipulated that Bank, by use of ordinary care at all times in ATM or Debit Card transactions cannot protect or maintain security of ATM or Debit Cards or their designated P.I.N.s, and or immediately detect the loss of possession of or control over, or any misuse or unauthorized use of, ATM or Debit Card and their designated P.I.N.s.

When you use your ATM or Debit Card at a merchant that settles in currency other than U.S. Dollars, the charge will be converted into the U.S. Dollar amount. The currency conversion rate used to determine the transaction amount in U.S. Dollars is either a foreign government mandated rate or the wholesale market rate in effect the day before the processing date, increased by the margin set forth in the applicable Schedule of Fees and Charges.

PREPAID BANK CARDS: If Depositor and Bank have entered into any agreement relating in any way to Prepaid Bank Cards, the Agreements, terms and conditions and disclosures relating to any and all Prepaid Bank's and Payroll Cards issued by Bank are incorporated herein for all purposes.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS

TAXES CHARGED: Depositor agrees to pay, and this Account is subject to, any tax charged by any governmental entity on any services rendered by Bank.

SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNMENTS: This Agreement is binding on each of the Authorized Signatories and each's personal representatives, executors, administrators, and heirs, and on each's successors and assigns, if any. The benefits and responsibilities of Bank under this Agreement shall also transfer to and shall be binding upon Bank's successors and assigns.

Depositor may not transfer or assign this Account without the prior written consent of Bank and no assignment will be valid and/or enforceable against Bank, nor will Bank be deemed to have knowledge of or be bound by any attempted assignment of this Account, or any interest or privileges therein, unless and until Bank has agreed in writing to the assignment, has received a copy of the notice of assignment of account, has acknowledged in writing receipt of the notice of assignment and of the actual assignment document and has noted in the assignment in its records. However, by noting the assignment in its records, Bank does not attest to or have any responsibility to any person or entity regarding the validity of the assignment or have any duty to notify any person or entity regarding any/or all changes in authority to conduct banking business with Bank, or regarding any and/or all withdrawals or transfer of the funds in this Account.

NO ILLEGAL TRANSACTIONS: This Account and/or any ATM or Debit Card issued by Bank may be used for legal transactions only.

IMPRACTICABILITY OF PERFORMANCE: Bank shall be excused from failing to act or any delay in acting, provided that its failure or delay is caused by interruption of transmission or communication facilities, act of God, fire, terrorism, flood, equipment failure, war, emergency conditions, any act or failure to act by a third party or entity, or any other circumstances beyond its sole control.

GENERAL PROVISIONS:

- (1) If any section, provision, term or condition of this Agreement is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the enforceability of all remaining provisions shall not be affected.
- (2) English is the controlling language of the relationship between you and Bank. Bank may translate its forms, disclosures, and advertisements into another language for your convenience. However, if there is a discrepancy between Bank's English language materials and the materials provided in another language, the English language version is conclusively deemed to be controlling, unless (i) the Bank otherwise agrees with you in writing, or (ii) there is a governing Texas, or federal law, rule or regulation that specifically provides for a different result.

SECTION TITLES: Section titles are for convenience only and are not to be construed as part of this Agreement or as a limitation on a particular section to which they refer.

BINDING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT PLEASE READ THIS CAREFULLY. IT AFFECTS YOUR RIGHTS.

THE BANK, DEPOSITOR AND EACH AUTHORIZED SIGNATORY AGREE TO

ARBITRATION AS FOLLOWS (hereinafter referred to as the “Arbitration Provisions”)

I. Special Provisions and Definitions applicable to both CONSUMER DISPUTES and BUSINESS DISPUTES:

(a) Informal Resolution of Customer Concerns.

Most customer concerns can be resolved quickly and to the customer’s satisfaction by contacting your account officer, branch manager or by calling the Customer Service Department in your region. The region and numbers are:

1. Laredo	956-722-7611
2. Austin	512-397-4506
3. Brownsville	956-547-1000
4. Commerce Bank	956-724-1616
5. Corpus Christi	361-888-4000
6. Eagle Pass	830-773-2313
7. Houston	713-526-1211
8. McAllen	956-686-0263
9. Oklahoma	405-841-2100
10. Port Lavaca	361-552-9771
11. San Antonio	210-518-2500
12. Zapata	956-765-8361

In the unlikely event that your account officer, branch manager or the customer service department is unable to resolve a complaint to your satisfaction or if the Bank has not been able to resolve a dispute it has with you after attempting to do so informally, you and the Bank agree to resolve those disputes through binding arbitration or small claims court instead of in courts of general jurisdiction.

- (b) Sending Notice of Dispute. If either you or the Bank intend to seek arbitration, then you or the Bank must first send to the other by certified mail, return receipt requested, a written Notice of Dispute. The Notice of Dispute to the Bank should be addressed to: Dennis E. Nixon, President, at International Bancshares Corporation, P.O. Drawer 1359, Laredo, Texas 78042-1359 or if by email, ibcchairman@ibc.com. The Notice of Dispute must (a) describe the nature and basis of the claim or dispute; and (b) explain specifically what relief is sought. You may download a copy of the Notice of Dispute at www.ibc.com or you may obtain a copy from your account officer or branch manager.
- (c) If the Dispute is not Informally Resolved. If you and the Bank do not reach an agreement to resolve the claim or dispute within thirty (30) days after the Notice of Dispute is received, you or the Bank may commence a binding arbitration proceeding. During the binding arbitration proceeding, any settlement offers made by you or the Bank shall not be disclosed to the Arbitrator.
- (d) “DISPUTE(S)”. As used herein, the word “DISPUTE(S)” includes any and all controversies or claims between the PARTIES of whatever type or manner, including without limitation, any and all claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement, compliance with applicable laws and/or regulations, any and all services or products provided by the Bank, any and all past, present and/or future loans, lines of credit, letters of credit, credit facilities or other form of indebtedness and/or agreements involving the PARTIES, any and all transactions between or involving the PARTIES, and/or any and all aspects of any past or present relationship of the PARTIES, whether banking or otherwise, specifically including but not limited to any claim founded in contract, tort, fraud, fraudulent inducement, misrepresentation or otherwise, whether based on statute, regulation, common law or equity.

- (e) “CONSUMER DISPUTE” and “BUSINESS DISPUTE”. As used herein, “CONSUMER DISPUTE” means a DISPUTE relating to an account (including a deposit account), agreement, extension of credit, loan, service or product provided by the Bank that is primarily for personal, family or household purposes. “BUSINESS DISPUTE” means any DISPUTE that is not a CONSUMER DISPUTE.
- (f) “PARTIES” or “PARTY”. As used in these Arbitration Provisions, the term “PARTIES” or “PARTY” means the Bank, Depositor and each Authorized Signatory, and each and all persons and entities signing this Agreement or any other agreements between or among any of the PARTIES as part of this transaction. “PARTIES” or “PARTY” shall be broadly construed and include individuals, beneficiaries, partners, limited partners, limited liability members, shareholders, subsidiaries, parent companies, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, heirs, agents and/or representatives of any party to such documents, any other person or entity claiming by or through one of the foregoing and/or any person or beneficiary who receives products or services from the Bank and shall include any other owner and holder of this Agreement. Throughout these Arbitration Provisions, the term “you” and “your” refer to Depositor and each Authorized Signatory, and the term “Arbitrator” refers to the individual arbitrator or panel of arbitrators, as the case may be, before which the DISPUTE is arbitrated.
- (g) BINDING ARBITRATION. The PARTIES agree that any DISPUTE between the PARTIES shall be resolved by mandatory binding arbitration pursuant to these Arbitration Provisions at the election of either PARTY. BY AGREEING TO RESOLVE A DISPUTE IN ARBITRATION, THE PARTIES ARE WAIVING THEIR RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL OR TO LITIGATE IN COURT (except for matters that may be taken to small claims court for a CONSUMER DISPUTE as provided below).
- (h) CLASS ACTION WAIVER. The PARTIES agree that (i) no arbitration proceeding hereunder whether a CONSUMER DISPUTE or a BUSINESS DISPUTE shall be certified as a class action or proceed as a class action, or on a basis involving claims brought in a purported representative capacity on behalf of the general public, other customers or potential customers or persons similarly situated, and (ii) no arbitration proceeding hereunder shall be consolidated with, or joined in any way with, any other arbitration proceeding. THE PARTIES AGREE TO ARBITRATE A CONSUMER DISPUTE OR BUSINESS DISPUTE ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS AND EACH WAIVES THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION.
- (i) FEDERAL ARBITRATION ACT AND TEXAS LAW. The PARTIES acknowledge that this Agreement evidences a transaction involving interstate commerce. The Federal Arbitration Act shall govern (i) the interpretation and enforcement of these Arbitration Provisions, and (ii) all arbitration proceedings that take place pursuant to these Arbitration Provisions. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT TEXAS SUBSTANTIVE LAW WILL APPLY IN ANY BINDING ARBITRATION PROCEEDING OR SMALL CLAIMS COURT ACTION REGARDLESS OF WHO INITIATES THE PROCEEDING, WHERE YOU RESIDE OR WHERE THE DISPUTE AROSE, UNLESS EXPRESSLY PROHIBITED BY LAW.

II. Provisions applicable only to a CONSUMER DISPUTE:

- (a) Any and all CONSUMER DISPUTES shall be resolved by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) under the Consumer Arbitration Rules and Consumer Due Process Protocol (which are incorporated herein for all purposes). It is intended by the PARTIES that these Arbitration Provisions meet and include all fairness standards and principles of the American Arbitration Association’s Consumer Due Process Protocol and due process in predispute arbitration. If a CONSUMER DISPUTE is for a claim of actual damages above $250,000 it shall be administered by the AAA before three neutral arbitrators at the request of any PARTY.
- (b) Instead of proceeding in arbitration, any PARTY hereto may, in an individual capacity and not on behalf of a class or in a representative capacity, pursue its monetary claim in your local small claims court, if the CONSUMER DISPUTE meets the small claims court’s jurisdictional limits. All non-monetary claims, including but not limited to claims for permanent injunction, specific performance and/or declaratory judgment, must proceed in arbitration. If the small claims court option is chosen, the PARTY pursuing the claim must contact the small claims court directly. The PARTIES agree that the class action waiver provision also applies to any CONSUMER DISPUTE brought in small claims court.
- (c) For any claim for actual damages that does not exceed $2,500, the Bank will pay all arbitration fees and costs provided you submitted a Notice of Dispute with regard to the CONSUMER DISPUTE prior to initiation of arbitration. For any claim for actual damages that does not exceed $5,000, the Bank also agrees to pay your reasonable attorney’s fees and reasonable expenses your attorney charges you in connection with the arbitration (even if the Arbitrator does not award those to you) plus an additional $2,500 if you obtain a favorable arbitration award for your actual damages which is greater than any written settlement offer for your actual damages made by the Bank to you prior to the selection of the Arbitrator.
- (d) Under the AAA’s Consumer Arbitration Rules you shall only be responsible for paying up to a maximum of $200 in arbitration fees and costs. For any claim for actual damages that does not exceed $75,000, the Bank will pay all other arbitrator’s fees and costs imposed by the administrator of the arbitration. With regard to a CONSUMER DISPUTE for a claim of actual damages that exceeds $75,000, the Bank agrees to pay all arbitration fees and costs you would otherwise be responsible for that exceed $1,000. The fees and costs stated above are subject to any amendments to the fee and cost schedules of the AAA. The fee and cost schedule in effect at the time you submit your claim shall apply. The AAA rules also permit you to request a waiver or deferral of the administrative fees and costs of arbitration if paying them would cause you financial hardship.

- (e) Although under some laws, the Bank may have a right to an award of attorney's fees and expenses if it prevails in arbitration, the Bank agrees that it will not seek such an award in a binding arbitration proceeding with regard to a CONSUMER DISPUTE for a claim of actual damages that does not exceed $75,000.
- (f) To request information on how to submit an arbitration claim, or to request a copy of the AAA rules or fee schedule, you may contact the AAA at 1-800-778-7879 (toll free) or at www.adr.org.

III. Provisions applicable only to a BUSINESS DISPUTE:

- (a) Any and all BUSINESS DISPUTES between the PARTIES shall be resolved by arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA in effect at the time of filing, as modified by, and subject to, these Arbitration Provisions. A BUSINESS DISPUTE for a claim of actual damages that exceeds $250,000 shall be administered by AAA before at least three (3) neutral arbitrators at the request of any PARTY. In the event the aggregate of all affirmative claims asserted exceeds $500,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, or upon the written request of any PARTY, the arbitration shall be conducted under the AAA Procedures for Large, Complex Commercial Disputes. If the payment of arbitration fees and costs will cause you extreme financial hardship you may request that AAA defer or reduce the administrative fees or request the Bank to cover some of the arbitration fees and costs that would be your responsibility.
- (b) The PARTIES shall have the right to (i) invoke self-help remedies (such as setoff, notification of account debtors, seizure and/or foreclosure of collateral, and nonjudicial sale of personal property and real property collateral) before, during or after any arbitration, and/or (ii) request interim ancillary or provisional judicial remedies in aid of arbitration (such as garnishment, attachment, preliminary or temporary injunction or temporary restraining order, and sequestration) before or after the commencement of any arbitration proceeding. Any interim ancillary or provisional judicial remedies in aid of arbitration obtained by a PARTY are not final, are subject to review by the Arbitrator, and the Arbitrator retains sole and exclusive authority to issue a final award resolving any and all DISPUTES between the PARTIES. Use of self-help or interim ancillary and/or provisional judicial remedies in aid of arbitration may only be brought by a PARTY in an individual capacity and not on behalf of a class. The PARTIES need not await the outcome of the arbitration proceeding before using self-help remedies. Use of self-help or ancillary and/or provisional judicial remedies in aid of arbitration shall not operate as a waiver of either PARTY's right to compel arbitration. Any ancillary or provisional judicial remedy in aid of arbitration which would be available from a court at law shall be available from the Arbitrator.
- (c) Except to the extent the recovery of any type or types of damages or penalties may not be waived under applicable law, the Arbitrator shall not have the authority to award either PARTY (i) punitive, exemplary, special or indirect damages, (ii) statutory multiple damages, or (iii) penalties, statutory or otherwise.

- (d) The Arbitrator may award attorney's fees and costs including the fees, costs and expenses of arbitration and of the Arbitrator as the Arbitrator deems appropriate to the prevailing PARTY. The Arbitrator shall retain jurisdiction over questions of attorney's fees for fourteen (14) days after entry of the decision.

IV. General provisions applicable to both CONSUMER DISPUTES and BUSINESS DISPUTES:

- (a) The Arbitrator is bound by the terms of these Arbitration Provisions. The Arbitrator shall have exclusive authority to resolve any DISPUTES relating to the existence, scope, validity, or enforceability of these Arbitration Provisions, including (i) all arbitrability questions, and (ii) any claim that all or a part of these Arbitration Provisions are void or voidable (including any claims that they are unconscionable in whole or in part) , except that the Arbitrator shall have no authority or jurisdiction to order that an arbitration proceed in any capacity other than in an individual capacity.
- (b) These Arbitration Provisions shall survive any termination, amendment, or expiration of this Agreement, unless all of the PARTIES otherwise expressly agree in writing.
- (c) If a PARTY initiates legal proceedings, the failure of the initiating PARTY to request arbitration pursuant to these Arbitration Provisions within one year after the filing of the lawsuit shall be deemed a waiver of the initiating PARTY'S right to compel arbitration with respect to the claims asserted in the litigation, unless it has not substantially invoked the judicial process. The failure of the defending PARTY in such litigation to request arbitration pursuant to these Arbitration Provisions within one year after the defending PARTY'S receipt of service of judicial process, shall be deemed a waiver of the right of the defending PARTY to compel arbitration with respect to the claims asserted in the litigation unless it has not substantially invoked the judicial process. If a counterclaim, cross-claim or third party action is filed and properly served on a PARTY in connection with such litigation, the failure of such PARTY to request arbitration pursuant to these Arbitration Provisions within one hundred eighty (180) days after such PARTY'S receipt of service of the counterclaim, cross-claim or third party claim shall be deemed a waiver of such PARTY'S right to compel arbitration with respect to the claims asserted therein, unless it has not substantially invoked the judicial process. The issue of waiver pursuant to these Arbitration Provisions is an arbitrable dispute. Active participation in any pending litigation described above by a PARTY shall not in any event be deemed a waiver of such PARTY'S right to compel arbitration. All discovery obtained in the pending litigation may be used in any subsequent arbitration proceeding.
- (d) Any PARTY seeking to arbitrate shall serve a written notice of intent to any and all opposing PARTIES after a DISPUTE has arisen. The PARTIES agree a timely written notice of intent to arbitrate by either PARTY pursuant to these Arbitration Provisions shall stay and/or abate any and all action in a trial court, save and except a hearing on a motion to compel arbitration and/or the entry of an order compelling arbitration and staying and/or abating the litigation pending the filing of the final award of the Arbitrator.

- (e) Any Arbitrator selected shall be knowledgeable in the subject matter of the DISPUTE and be licensed to practice law.
- (f) For a one (1) member arbitration panel, the PARTIES are limited to an equal number of strikes in selecting the arbitrator from the AAA neutral list, such that at least one arbitrator remains after the PARTIES exercise all of their respective strikes. For a three (3) member arbitration panel, the PARTIES are limited to an equal number of strikes in selecting the arbitrators from the AAA neutral list, such that at least three arbitrators remain after the PARTIES exercise all of their respective strikes. After exercising all of their allotted respective strikes, the PARTIES shall rank those potential arbitrators remaining numerically in order of preference (with “1” designating the most preferred). The AAA shall review the PARTIES rankings and assign a score to each potential arbitrator by adding together the ranking given to such potential arbitrator by each PARTY. The arbitrator(s) with the lowest score total(s) will be selected. In the event of a tie or ties for lowest score total and if the selection of both or all of such potential arbitrators is not possible due to the required panel size, the AAA shall select the arbitrator(s) it believes to be best qualified.
- (g) The PARTIES and the Arbitrator shall treat all aspects of the arbitration proceedings, including, without limitation, any documents exchanged, testimony and other evidence, briefs and the award, as strictly confidential; provided, however, that a written award or order from the Arbitrator may be filed with any court having jurisdiction to confirm and/or enforce such award or order, if not timely satisfied as provided herein. Prior to seeking to enforce any award granted by the Arbitration, the Party seeking to enforce the award will give the other Party thirty (30) days written notice of its intention to file the award of record for purposes of enforcement. If the award is satisfied within the 30 day period, then the prevailing party is prohibited from filing the award with any state or federal court and agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the award. The Arbitrator has broad authority, including the issuance of monetary and/or other sanctions, to ensure and enforce the confidentiality of the proceedings.
- (h) The PARTIES agree that the Arbitrator shall be required to allow, consider and rule on a dispositive motion filed by any PARTY.
- (i) Any statute of limitation which would otherwise be applicable shall apply to any claim asserted in any arbitration proceeding under these Arbitration Provisions, and the commencement of any arbitration proceeding tolls the running of any such statute of limitation.
- (j) If the AAA is unable for any reason to provide arbitration services, then the PARTIES agree to select another arbitration service provider that has the ability to arbitrate the DISPUTE pursuant to and consistent with these Arbitration Provisions. If the PARTIES are unable to agree on another arbitration service provider, any PARTY may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to appoint an Arbitrator to administer the arbitration proceeding pursuant to and consistent with these Arbitration Provisions.

- (k) The award of the Arbitrator shall be final and Judgment upon any such award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The arbitration award shall be in the form of a written reasoned decision and shall be based on and consistent with applicable law.
- (l) Unless the PARTIES mutually agree to hold the binding arbitration proceeding elsewhere, venue of any arbitration proceeding under these Arbitration Provisions shall be (i) for all Texas accounts, in the Texas county where the account was opened, and (ii) for all Oklahoma accounts, in the Oklahoma county where the account was opened.
- (m) If any of these Arbitration Provisions are held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall be enforced without regard to the invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

JURY WAIVER: IF A DISPUTE BETWEEN YOU AND THE BANK PROCEEDS IN COURT RATHER THAN THROUGH MANDATORY BINDING ARBITRATION THEN YOU AND BANK BOTH WAIVE THE RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL, AND SUCH DISPUTE WILL BE TRIED BEFORE A JUDGE ONLY.

NO ORAL AGREEMENTS

THIS AGREEMENT REPRESENTS THE FINAL AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES AND MAY NOT BE CONTRADICTED BY EVIDENCE OF PRIOR, CONTEMPORANEOUS OR SUBSEQUENT ORAL AGREEMENTS OF THE PARTIES THERE ARE NO UNWRITTEN ORAL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN THE PARTIES.
